"SERVICES TO PEOPLE," DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE PROGRAMS, ADMINISTERED IN COOPERATION WITH APPROPRIATE STATE AND LOCAL AGENCIES

Education

Legislation	Programs—Purposes or provisions—Special features	Federal agency	State agency	Local agency
National Defense Education Act, Public Law 85-864.	Support for educational programs with specific emphasis in the following areas:
	1. Student loans: 3 percent interest loans to needy college students (waiver of repayment possible).	Office of Education	Department of public instruction administers some programs.	Colleges and universities, board of education.
	2. Strengthen instruction in critical subjects: Science, math, languages, primarily.	do	do	Do.
	3. Recruit and train more teachers: Provide graduate fellowships.	do	do	Do.
	4. Improve guidance and testing in elementary and high schools: Testing in private schools.	do	do	Do.
	5. Improve ability of guidance counselors: Conduct special institutes.	do	do	Do.
	6. Upgrade quality of instruction of foreign languages: Conduct special institutes.	do	do	Do.
	7. Improve statistical services of State department of education.	do	do	Do.
	8. Improve teaching skills: Elementary and high school level, includes teaching the disadvantaged.	do	do	Do.
	9. Conduct research on educational uses of TV, radio, and other media.	do	do	Do.
Elementary and Secondary Education Act, Public Law 89-10.	Funds to improve elementary and high school education especially in low-income districts:
	I. Special programs and services to improve education of disadvantaged children.	do	do	Local schools.
	II. Libraries, materials, textbooks, etc., to public and private schools.	do	do	Do.
	III. Supplementary educational centers, special services not otherwise available.	do	do	Do.
	IV. Research, training, experimentation, and demonstration to improve education.	do	do	Universities.
	V. Improve State education department staffing services to counties and local school districts.	do	do	Do.
Economic Opportunity Act, Public Law 88-452.	War on poverty efforts to develop the following interagency programs:
	1. Basic adult education—3 R's for adults—to wipe out illiteracy and ignorance.	do	do	Local schools.
	2. Work study program for needy students (transferred to Higher Education Act).	do	do	Colleges and universities.