Index to Attorney General's Opinions 1964-1973

A.
Alcoholic Beverages—
Retail licenses—Limitation of ownership to no more than two persons. F.O. 3, 1964.
Appointments, Freeze on—Faulkner Act
See Municipal Corporations.

B.
Banks and Banking—
Investments—May acquire by assignment from Administrator of Veterans Affairs, installment sale contract of real property. F.O. 12, 1964.
Beneficiaries—
See Public Employees’ Retirement System.
Birth Certificates—
See Health, Department of.
Bi-State Commissions—
Employees who are veterans are entitled to same retirement benefits as other State employees who are veterans. F.O. 5, 1964.
Bonds—
Buildings—
State—Leasing of space in M.O. 1, 1964.
Buses—
Labor disputes—N.J.S.A. 34:13B-1 is unconstitutional as applied to interruption of service of bus company whose operations are subject to Federal labor law. F.O. 1, 1964.

C.
College Bond Issue—
See Higher Education.
Constitutional Law—
Amendments to N.J. Constitution—Legislature has implied power to rescind earlier resolutions proposing constitutional amendments. F.O. 2, 1969.
Dual enrollment programs involving the attendance at public schools of students from private and parochial schools for selected educational purposes do not violate Federal constitutional standards. F.O. 4, 1965.
Labor disputes—N.J.S.A. 34:13B-1 is unconstitutional as applied to interruptions of service of bus company whose operations are subject to Federal labor laws. F.O. 1, 1964.
Leasing of State property—Revenues realized from lease or rental may not constitutionally be diverted to any private use. F.O. 1, 1964.
Oath of office—Second paragraph of oath to which teaching and supervisory employees in public schools must subscribe is unconstitutional. F.O. 3, 1967.
Public funds—State Authority to provide residential and educational facilities for New Jersey colleges does not violate constitutional prohibition against use of public funds for private use. F.O. 2, 1965.
Student religious organizations functioning at the State Colleges would not contravene Federal constitutional standards. F.O. 1, 1965.
Corporations—
Counties—

D.
Delaware River Basin Commission—
Employees who are veterans are entitled to same retirement benefits as other State employees who are veterans. F.O. 5, 1964.
Delaware River Joint Toll Commission—
Employees who are veterans are entitled to same retirement benefits as other State employees who are veterans. F.O. 5, 1964.
Delaware River Port Authority—
 Destruction of Public Records Act—
See Public Records.
Disability, Accidental
See Pensions.
Drunk Driving—
Dual Enrollment Programs—
See Schools and School Districts.

E.
Elections—
Bond issue—Omission from publication in newspapers of amendments set forth in subsequent act comprises no legal defect which prevents issuance of bonds. F.O. 6, 1964.
Registration—Voter who has not voted at any election except at a school election during four consecutive years must re-register in order to vote at any subsequent election. F.O. 3, 1965.

F.

Farm tractors—
See Motor Vehicles.
Faulkner Act—
See Municipal corporations.

Fish and Game—

G.

Gallin, Albert—
Death benefits of, M.O. 4, 1964.
Guardian and Ward—
Legal ward of State employee is a “dependent” within terms of State Employees Health Benefit Act. F.O. 8, 1964.

H.

Health, Department of—
Health Insurance—
See State Employees Health Benefit Act.
Higher Education—
Dormitory Authority—State may establish an authority to provide student dormitory and related facilities as State public colleges. F.O. 2, 1965.
Student religious groups functioning at the State Colleges do not contravene Federal constitutional standards. F.O. 1, 1965.

I.

Implied Consent Law—
See Motor Vehicles.

Insurance—
Domestic life insurance companies may grant stock options to officers, directors, and trustees, with certain provisions. F.O. 13, 1964.
Subrogee—“Party in interest” is itself indicative of a legislative recognition that, under certain circumstances, it is necessary to permit a subrogee to file with the Motor Vehicle Liability Security Fund. F.O. 1, 1969.

J.

Judges—
Pensions to surviving widows—
See Pensions.
Superior Court—
Secretaries may enroll in Public Employees’ Retirement System at their option. M.O. 9, 1964.

L.

Labor—
Disputes—N.J.S.A. 34:13B-1 unconstitutional as applies to interruption of service of bus company whose operations are subject of Federal labor laws. F.O. 1, 1964.

Landlord and Tenant—

Law Enforcement Officers—
See Police.

Leases—
Revenues realized from lease or rental of State property may not constitutionally be diverted to any private use. M.O. 1, 1964.

M.

Marine Patrolman—

Motor Vehicles—

Motor Vehicle Liability Security Fund—
Under certain circumstances a subrogee may file with Fund as “party in interest”. F.O. 1, 1969.

Unsatisfied Claim and Judgment Fund—
Director may require motorists to pay additional fee chargeable to insured on any day during year of registration. F.O. 1, 1966.

Municipal Corporations—
Faulkner Act—Freeze on appointments imposed by Faulkner Act applicable only in year of effective date of optional plan of government adopted pursuant to Act. F.O. 4, 1964.

N.

New Jersey Prevailing Wage Act—

O.

Oaths—

Officers—
Terms of office—Commission of any State officer may be held whatever date the governor selects from the date of confirmation to the date on which the oath is taken provided it is not prior to the expiration of the term of the incumbent. F.O. 1, 1970.

P.

Payton, Charles L.—

Pensions—

Disability—If application for accidental disability benefits is denied but finding of permanent disability is made, employee shall be retired on basis of ordinary disability. F.O. 9, 1964.

Federal Old Age, Survivors and Disability Benefits—Persons seeking to secure should not be charged for issuance of birth certificates. M.O. 3, 1965.

Teachers’ Pension and Annuity Fund—Employee’s contributions should be based on salary before the reduction attributable to purchase of annuity. F.O. 5, 1965.

Veterans employed by bi-state commission, Delaware River Basin Commission, Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission are entitled to same benefits as other State employees who are veterans. F.O. 5, 1964.

Widows—Statute affording pension benefits to widows of certain judges has no retroactive effect. M.O. 8, 1964.

Personal Property Taxation—
See Taxation.

Police—

Prevaling Wage Act—
See New Jersey Prevailing Wage Act.

Private Detective License—
See Professions and Occupations.

Professions and Occupations—

Public Employees’ Retirement System—

Eligibility for membership of persons employed by Essex County subsequent to March 26, 1961 and those in employment of Essex County prior to that date. F.O. 11, 1964.

Employees’ contribution should be based on his salary before the reduction attributable to purchase of annuity. F.O. 5, 1965.

Enrollment by secretaries to Superior Court Judges is optional. M.O. 9, 1964.

Payment of interest on accumulated deductions of member who dies within two years after termination of service as employee. F.O. 1, 1967.

Veterans employed by bi-state commissions, Delaware River Basin Commission and Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission are entitled to same benefits as other State employees who are war veterans. F.O. 5, 1964.

Public Finance—
Establishment of State Authority to construct dormitory and attendant facilities at State College does not violate N.J. Constitution with respect to debt limitation and appropriation of public funds. F.O. 2, 1965.

Public Schools—
See Schools and School Districts.

Public Utilities—
Buses—N.J.S.A. 34:13B-1 is unconstitutional as applied to interruption of service of bus company whose operations are subject to Federal labor law. F.O. 1, 1964.

Purchase and Property, Division of—
Jurisdiction—Director has sole authority to lease space in State buildings to private corporations for installation of vending machines. M.O. 1, 1964.
R.

Real Property —

Installment sale contracts of real property may be acquired by banking institutions for investment purposes from Administrator of Veterans' Affairs. F.O. 12, 1964.

Residency —

See Domicile and Residency.

Retirement Benefits —

See Pensions.

Round Valley and Spruce Run Reservoir Complex —

Municipalities receiving payments from State as compensation for loss of tax revenue may not retain these receipts exclusively for local purposes. F.O. 2, 1964.

S.

Schools and School Districts —

Oaths — Second paragraph of oath to which teaching and supervisory employees in public schools must subscribe is unconstitutional. F.O. 3, 1967.

Secured Transactions —

Installment sale contracts of real property may be acquired by banking institutions for investment purposes from Administrator of Veterans' Affairs. F.O. 12, 1964.

Sewerage Authority —

State —

Commission of any State officer may bear whatever date the governor selects from the date of confirmation to the date on which the oath is taken provided it is not prior to the expiration of the term of the incumbent to the office. F.O. 1, 1970.

Establishment of Authority to provide residential and educational facilities for public colleges does not violate N.J. Constitution. F.O. 2, 1965. Revenue realized from lease or rental of State property may not constitutionally be diverted to any private use. M.O. 1, 1964.

T.

Taxation —

Exemptions — Which categories of vehicles registered under provisions of Title 39 are exempt from personal property taxation. F.O. 7, 1964. Round Valley and Spruce Run Act — Municipalities receiving payments from State as compensation for loss of tax revenue may not retain these receipts exclusively for local purposes. F.O. 2, 1964.

Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund —

Employee's contribution should be based on his salary before the deduction attributable to purchase of annuity. F.O. 5, 1965.

Payment of interest on accumulated deductions of member who dies within two years after termination of service as employee. F.O. 1, 1967.

Teachers —

Second paragraph of oath to which teaching and supervisory employees in public schools must subscribe is unconstitutional. F.O. 3, 1967.

U.

Inscribed Claim and Judgment Fund —

See Motor Vehicles.

V.

Vehicles —

See Motor Vehicles.

Vending Machines —

Veterans —

Employees of Delaware River Basin Commission who are veterans are entitled to same retirement benefits as other State employees who are war veterans. F.O. 5, 1964.

Veterans Administration —

Mortgage Loan Guarantee Program — Acquisition of installment sale contracts of real property by banks and savings banks and savings banks. F.O. 12, 1964.

Volunteer Fire Companies —

See Municipal Corporations.

Voter Registration —

See Elections.

W.

Water and Watercourses —

Fresh water fishing distinguished from fishing in Atlantic Ocean with regard to licensing by Division of Fish and Game. M.O. 6, 1964.

Words and Phrases—

"Include" as used in N.J.S.A. 52:14-17.26(d). F.O. 8, 1964.

"Instrumentality" as used in 42 U.S.C.A. sec. 418(b) (2). M.O. 1, 1965.

