

(b) jurisdiction is conferred on the several courts of the Territories of the Commonwealth, with respect to offences against this Act or the regulations.

“(2.) The jurisdiction invested in or conferred on courts by the last preceding sub-section is invested or conferred within the limits (other than limits having effect by reference to the places at which offences are committed) of their several jurisdictions, whether those limits are as to subject-matter or otherwise.

“(3.) The trial on indictment of an offence against this Act or the regulations, not being an offence committed within a State, may be held in any State or Territory of the Commonwealth.

“(4.) The jurisdiction invested in, or conferred on, a court of summary jurisdiction by this section shall not be judicially exercised except by a Chief, Police, Stipendiary, Resident or Special Magistrate, or a District Officer or Assistant District Officer of a Territory of the Commonwealth.

“(5.) Where an appeal lies from a court to the Supreme Court of a State or Territory of the Commonwealth, an appeal from a decision of the first-mentioned court exercising jurisdiction by virtue of this section may be brought to the High Court.

“(6.) The High Court may grant special leave to appeal to the High Court from a decision of a court of a State or Territory of the Commonwealth exercising jurisdiction by virtue of this section notwithstanding that the law of that State or Territory prohibits an appeal from the last-mentioned court.

“(7.) Subject to this Act, the laws of a State or Territory of the Commonwealth with respect to the arrest and custody of offenders or persons charged with offences and the procedure for—

- (a) their summary conviction;
- (b) their examination and commitment for trial on indictment;
- (c) their trial and conviction on indictment; and
- (d) the hearing and determination of appeals arising out of any such trial or conviction or out of any proceedings connected therewith, and for holding accused persons to bail apply, so far as they are applicable, to a person who is charged in that State or Territory with an offence against this Act or the regulations.

“(8.) Except as provided by this section, the Judiciary Act 1903–1960 applies in relation to offences against this Act or the regulations.
