

with which the Order in Council, order or regulations is or are made, and may make such further provision as appears to His Majesty in Council or to the Secretary of State or the Minister, as the case may be, to be necessary or expedient for securing such detention.

PART VI
—cont.

59.—(1) Notwithstanding that an Order in Council made by Extra-virtue of any enactment to which this Part of this Act applies territorial or this Part of this Act or a regulation made by virtue of any effect. such enactment by the Secretary of State or the Minister has effect only as part of the law of the United Kingdom, no provision contained in the Order or regulation shall, on the ground that it would have extra-territorial operation, be deemed to be invalid in so far as it applies to British aircraft registered in the United Kingdom, wherever they may be, or prohibits, requires or regulates—

- (a) the doing of anything by persons in, or any of the personnel of, such British aircraft as aforesaid, wherever they may be, or
- (b) the doing of anything in relation to such British aircraft as aforesaid by other persons being British subjects or citizens of the Republic of Ireland, wherever they may be.

For the purposes of this subsection the personnel of an aircraft shall be deemed to include the commander or other person in charge of the aircraft, and all other members of the crew of the aircraft.

Nothing in this subsection shall affect subsection (1) of section three of the British Nationality Act, 1948 (which limits the criminal liability of certain persons who are not citizens of the United Kingdom and Colonies).

(2) His Majesty may by Order in Council direct that any of the following provisions, that is to say—

- (a) any enactment to which this Part of this Act applies ; or
- (b) any enactment in this Part of this Act ; or
- (c) any provision of any Order in Council or regulations made by virtue of any such enactment ;

being a provision which has extra-territorial operation in relation to British aircraft registered in the United Kingdom, shall, subject to such exceptions, adaptations and modifications, if any, as may be specified in the Order made under this subsection, have such operation also in relation to British aircraft registered in any country or territory mentioned in subsection (1) of section sixty-six of this Act or registered in the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands.
