

- (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine not exceeding five hundred pounds, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both such a fine and such imprisonment.

(5) If any person fails without reasonable cause to comply with any requirement duly made of him under this Act to surrender an air service licence for cancellation or variation, he shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds.

(6) Where an offence under this section committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate or any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, he, as well as the body corporate, shall be guilty of that offence and be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

In this subsection, the expression "director", in relation to a body corporate established by or under any enactment for the purpose of carrying on under national ownership any industry or part of an industry or undertaking, being a body corporate whose affairs are managed by its members, means a member of that body corporate.

(7) Any offence under this section shall, for the purpose of conferring jurisdiction, be deemed to have been committed in any place where the offender may for the time being be.

Prohibition of aerial advertising

7.—(1) Save in such circumstances as may be prescribed, no aircraft while in the air over any part of the United Kingdom or the territorial waters thereof shall be used, whether wholly or partly, for emitting or displaying any advertisement or other communication in such a way that the advertisement or communication is audible or visible from the ground. Prohibition of aerial advertising and propaganda.

(2) Any person who uses an aircraft, or knowingly causes or permits an aircraft to be used, in contravention of the foregoing subsection shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on summary conviction—

- (a) in the case of a first conviction of an offence under this section, to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds;
- (b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding two hundred pounds, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or to both such a fine and such imprisonment;

and subsections (6) and (7) of section six of this Act shall apply to any offence under this subsection as they apply to any offence under that section.
