(3) Rules to be laid before Parliament.—Every rule made under this section shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made before Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of one month which may be comprised in one session or in two or more sessions, and if before the expiry of that period Parliament makes any modification in the rule or directs that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect as the case may be.

6. Power of Central Government to make orders in emergency.—

(1) If the Central Government is of opinion that in the interest of the public safety or tranquility the issue of all or any of the following orders is expedient, it may, by notification in the official Gazette—

(a) cancel or suspend, either absolutely or subject to such conditions as it may think fit to specify in the order, all or any licences or certificates issued under this Act ;

(b) prohibit, either absolutely or subject to such conditions as it may think fit to specify in the order, or regulate in such manner as may be contained in the order, the flight of all or any aircraft or class of aircraft over the whole or any portion of India ;

(c) prohibit, either absolutely or conditionally, or regulate the erection, maintenance, or use of any aerodrome, aircraft factory, flying-school or club, or place where aircraft are manufactured, repaired or kept, or any class or description thereof ; and

(d) direct that any aircraft or class of aircraft or any aerodrome, aircraft factory, flying-school or club or place where aircraft are manufactured, repaired or kept, together with any machinery, plant, material or things used for the operation, manufacture, repair or maintenance of aircraft shall be delivered, either forthwith or within a specified time, to such authority and in such manner as it may specify in the order, to be at the disposal of Government for the public service.

(2) Any person who suffers direct injury or loss by reason of any order made under clause (c) or clause (d) of sub-section (1) shall be
