

PART I.—PRELIMINARY. RULES 1—3.

Extent of application—Nationality of aircraft—Definitions and interpretation

PART II.—GENERAL CONDITIONS OF FLYING. RULES 4—20.

Aircraft to be registered and personnel licensed—Documents to be carried in aircraft—Carriage of explosives and arms, radio-telegraph apparatus and mail—Use of aerodromes—Prohibited areas—Photographs at aerodromes or from aircraft in flight—Public transport and aerial work—Conditions for flight—Production of licences, etc.—Prevention of flights—Cancellation, suspension and endorsement of licences and certificates—Non-applicability of certain rules to gliders and kites.

PART III.—GENERAL SAFETY CONDITIONS. RULES 21—29.

Dangerous flying—Flying over cities, etc.—Acrobatics—Prohibition on intoxicated persons—Carriage of persons suffering from mental disorders—carriage of prisoners—Smoking in aircraft—Parachute descents and dropping of articles—Carriage of persons in unauthorized parts of aircraft—Control of aircraft by persons under seventeen—Acts imperilling safety

PART IV.—REGISTRATION AND MARKING OF AIRCRAFT. RULES 30—37.

Certificates of Registration—Nature of application—Aircraft imported by air—Change in ownership—Aircraft destroyed or withdrawn from use—Registration fee—Registration of aircraft—Method of affixing marks

PART V.—PERSONNEL OF AIRCRAFT. RULES 38—48.

Personnel to be carried—Licensing authority—Disqualification from holding or obtaining a licence—Medical requirements—Signature of licence holder—Proofs of competency—Periods of validity of licences—Pilots do not fly for more than 125 hours during any period of 30 consecutive days—Renewal of licences—Aircraft not registered in India—Validation of foreign licences—Renewal, variation and validation of licences outside India—Age of applicants—Fees

PART VI.—AIRWORTHINESS. RULES 49—62.

Standard of airworthiness—Acceptance of foreign standard—Instruments and equipment—Weight—Period of validity for certificates of airworthiness—Renewal of certificates of airworthiness—Periodical overhaul—Modifications—Maintenance standards and accessories—Daily inspection—Licensing of Aircraft Maintenance Engineers—Fees

PART VII.—RADIO TELEGRAPH APPARATUS. RULES 63—64.

Aircraft for which apparatus is obligatory—Suspension rules

PART VIII.—AIR ROUTE BEACONS, AERODROME AND FALSE LIGHTS. RULES 65—66.

Air route beacons and aerodrome lights—False lights.

PART IX.—LOG BOOKS. RULE 67.

Log books to be kept—Journey log book to be issued by the Central Government—Period of preservation of log books

PART X.—INVESTIGATION OF ACCIDENTS. RULES 68—77A.

Notification of accidents—Report on accidents—Removal and preservation of damaged aircraft—Inspector's investigation—Powers of Inspector of Accidents—Inspector's fee—Committee of inquiry—Formal Investigation—Obstruction of Proceedings—Accident to aircraft registered in foreign state—Saving

PART XI.—AERODROMES. RULES 78—87.

Government aerodromes—Other aerodromes—Licensed aerodromes—Public aerodromes—Tariff charges—Qualifications of licensee—Period of validity of licence—Classification of aerodromes—Conditions governing the grant of licence—Fees