

PART XII.—RULES OF THE AIR. RULES 88—133.

Lights and signals to be displayed by aircraft and sound signals—Ground marking—Lights and signals on and in the vicinity of public aerodromes—Distress, urgency and safety signals—Other signals to and from aircraft—General rules for air traffic—Special rules for traffic in the vicinity of aerodromes—Rules to be observed for departures and landings—Rules to be observed for manoeuvres on the ground—Rules relating to aircraft on the surface of water—Miscellaneous provisions

PART XIII.—EMERGENCY PROVISIONS. RULE 133A.

Application of Flying Control Regulations and Communications procedure to Civil Aircraft

PART XIII.—AIR TRANSPORT SERVICES. RULES 134—153

Air Transport Services—Minimum requirements to be complied with—Sanction to introduction of any new route or alternation in any existing routes of Scheduled air transport services—Operations Manual—Route Guides—Carriage of mails.

PART XIV.—GENERAL RULES 156—161.

Inspection of aircraft and aircraft factories—Forgery, etc., of documents—Foreign military aircraft—obstruction of authorised persons—Exemption—Penalties

SCHEDULE I.—PROHIBITED AREAS

Areas over which flight by aircraft is prohibited.

SCHEDULE II.—LICENSING OF AIRCRAFT PERSONNEL

Proofs of competency, tests and examinations for the issue and renewal of licences of aircraft personnel

SCHEDULE III.—CERTIFICATES OF AIRWORTHINESS AND AIRCRAFT MAINTENANCE ENGINEERS' LICENCES.

Conditions relating to the grant, validity and renewal of certificates of airworthiness and Aircraft Maintenance Engineers' licences.

SCHEDULE IV.—DIAGRAMS

Diagrams relating to lights and signals

SCHEDULE V.—AERODROMES.

Requisites to grant of licences—Tariff of landing and housing charges at Government aerodromes.

SCHEDULE VI.—PENALTIES

Penalties for failure to comply with the rules.

SCHEDULE VIII.—LICENSING OF AIR TRANSPORT

Minimum requirement to be complied with by Scheduled air transport services operated by the corporation.