

(7) Licences shall remain valid, unless cancelled or suspended, for the periods specified therein, subject to a maximum period of twelve months in each case, and may thereafter be renewed by the Central Government. A candidate for the renewal of a licence may be required to undergo further examinations and tests as a condition of the renewal of the licence.

(8) An Aircraft Maintenance Engineer licensed in a particular category shall, subject to the provisions of sub-rule (9), be competent to deal with the matters specified in sub-rule (2) in respect of the category in which he is licensed.

(9) A licence granted under this rule shall specify the type or types of aircraft, aero-engines instruments, accessories or equipment which the licensee is competent to deal with, and may contain restrictions limiting his competence to deal with any particular class of work, and the Central Government may at any time vary such specifications or restrictions.

(10) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-rule (3) of rule 19, the Central Government may, after such inquiry as it may deem fit, cancel, suspend or endorse any licence granted under this rule where it is satisfied that :—

(a) the holder of such licence has performed work, or granted a certificate in respect of work which has not been performed in a careful and competent manner, or

(b) the holder of such licence has signed a certificate in respect of any matter which he is not licensed to deal with, or

(c) it is undesirable for any other reason that the holder of such licence should continue to exercise the functions of an aircraft maintenance engineer.

(11) The Central Government may withhold the grant or renewal of a licence if for any reason it considers it desirable to do so.

62. Fees.—(1) The following fees shall be payable in respect of the issue or renewal of certificates of airworthiness and aircraft maintenance engineer's licence and duplicate certificates and licences, and the inspection, tests and examinations, required by this Part.
