

PART IX.—Log Books.

67. (1) The following log books shall be kept in respect of aircraft registered in India, namely :—

(a) for every aircraft, an aircraft log book and an engine log book and where more than one engine is fitted, a separate log book for each engine ;

(b) in addition, for every public transport aircraft (except where such aircraft does not leave the vicinity of its starting place and returns without landing elsewhere to its starting place) and for every aircraft engaged in international navigation, a journey log book.

(2) The log books shall be kept up to date in such manner as the Central Government may direct.

(3) The journey log book shall be issued by the Central Government; other log books shall be in the form required by the Central Government.

(4) The log books shall be preserved for two years from the date of the last entry therein.

(5) No person shall destroy, mutilate, alter or render illegible any log book or any entry made therein, or wilfully make or procure or assist in the making of any false or fraudulent entry in or omission from any log book.
