

The Director shall receive basic compensation at the rate of $22,500 per annum.

(b) The Director shall be the Chief Executive and administrative officer of the Conference and devote his full time and energies to the duties of his office. He shall—

- (i) have primary responsibility for effectuating the purposes and functions of the Conference set forth in Section 2 and implementing recommendations of the conference;
- (ii) make inquiries into matters for Conference consideration;
- (iii) serve as spokesman for and representative of the conference in discussions with the several branches and agencies of the Government as well as in the relations of the conference with persons outside the Government;
- (iv) when deemed appropriate by him, make reports to the Congress and to the President;
- (v) receive proposals of matters of practice and procedure for Conference consideration and make investigations or recommendations as deemed appropriate;
- (vi) furnish assistance and advice upon request of any agency;
- (vii) obtain information from the agencies needed by the Conference or the Director in effectuating the purposes and functions set forth in section 2, which information shall be supplied by the agencies upon request of the Director; and
- (viii) perform such other duties as are assigned to him from time to time by the Council or the Assembly.

SEC. 4. THE COUNCIL. The Council of the Conference shall consist of the Director and ten members appointed by the President of the United States. The Director shall also be Chairman of the Council. The Council shall include not more than five persons from among the agencies and at least five persons who are members of the bar in private practice. The membership of the Council shall reflect diversity of experience in the field of Federal administrative procedure.

Not more than six members of the Council shall be members of the same political party. The members of the Council shall be appointed for terms of three calendar years except that the terms of six of the members first appointed shall end December 31, 196-, and the terms of the remaining members first appointed shall end December 31, 196-, the term of each member to be designated by the President. Each of their successors shall be appointed for a term of three years from the date of the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed, except that any person appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of such predecessor. Each member of the Council shall serve until his successor is appointed and qualified. Members of the Council may be reappointed. Any vacancy on the Council shall be filled by the President by appointment from among persons eligible for original appointment to the vacant position. The Conference shall elect a member of the council Vice Chairman of the Council. In the event the Office of Director becomes vacant, the Vice Chairman shall serve as Director and Chairman of the Council unless and until the President shall designate a new director.

SEC. 5. MEMBERSHIP OF CONFERENCE. (a) The general membership of the Conference shall consist of members of the Council and persons from the agencies and members of the practicing bar, scholars in the field of administrative law and government, and others specifically informed by knowledge and experience with respect to Federal administrative practice and procedures. The composition of the membership and its total number shall be determined from time to time by the Council: Provided, That not more than fifty percentum of the membership shall be persons from the agencies nor shall more than fifty percentum of the membership be attorneys at law in private practice. The Council shall designate the agencies from whom members shall be named and the number of such persons from each, having due regard to the extent of the adjudicatory and rulemaking functions of the respective agencies. The head of the agency shall name a member or members from such agency. Other members (except as provided in section 6) shall be named by the Council. Each member shall participate in his individual capacity and not as a representative of any governmental or nongovernmental organization. All members of the Conference except the members of the Council shall be appointed for terms of two calendar