

Member, Administrative Law Section American Bar Association, 1948 to date. Member of Council Administrative Law Section American Bar Association, 1954-61. Chairman, Administrative Law Section American Bar Association, 1956-57. Chairman, Special Committee on Legal Services and Procedure, American Bar Association, 1961 to date. Member, for several years, Administrative Law Committee, Georgia Bar Association. Vice chairman, Lieutenant Governor's Special Committee for Study of Georgia Uniform Administrative Procedure Act, 1963-64. Member, Board of Visitors, Columbia University Law School, 1959 to date.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF ASHLEY SELLERS

Mark Ashley Sellers, lawyer, born Grand Bay, Ala., March 24, 1902; A.B., Princeton, 1924; LL.B. University of Texas, 1928; S.J.D., Harvard, 1933. Admitted to Texas Bar, 1928; Georgia, 1931; District of Columbia, 1947. Practice of law, Abilene, Tex., 1928-30; county attorney, Andrews, 1930; Longview, 1931; assistant professor of law, Emory University, 1931-33; special assistant to U.S. Attorney General, 1933-35, 1945 (specially designated to represent the Attorney General of the United States before the Congress respecting the enactment of the Administrative Procedure Act); professor of law, University of Georgia, 1935-38; Associate Solicitor U.S. Department of Agriculture, 1938-43; Assistant, War Food Administration, 1943-45; private practice, Washington, D.C., since 1946; currently executive partner, Cummings & Sellers; members, Administrative Conference of United States (chairman, Committee on Judicial Review), 1961-63; fellow and member board of directors, American Bar Foundation; member American (house of delegates, 1952-53, chairman special committee on legislative services and procedures 1955-58), Georgia, Federal (chairman, committee administrative law, 1944), Texas, District of Columbia Bar Associations, Interstate Commerce Practitioners Association, American Law Institute, American Judicature Society, Phi Delta Phi, Democrat, Methodist. Clubs: Cosmos, Princeton, Harvard, National Lawyers, National Democratic, Congressional Country (Washington), Terrace (Princeton, N.J., contributor of professional journals. Home: 5145 Tilden Street, Washington, D.C.; office, 1625 K Street NW., Washington 6, D.C.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF BERNARD A. FOSTER, JR.

Bernard A. Foster, Jr., born Spartanburg, S.C., 1909; admitted to bar, 1936, South Carolina; 1937, District of Columbia; 1954, Maryland. Preparatory education, Wofford College (A.B. with distinction, 1931); legal education, George Washington University Law School (J.D. 1937). Fraternity: Phi Delta Phi. Editor, George Washington University Law Review, 1936-37. Author, with collaborators, "Water-Resources Law," 1950. Senior attorney, Federal Trade Commission, 1941-42; Special counsel, Federal Power Commission, 1946-50. General Counsel, the President's Water-Resources Policy Commission, 1950-51. Assistant General Counsel and Chief, Natural Gas Division, Federal Power Commission, 1951-53. Trustee, Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation. Member: Bar Association of the District of Columbia; American Bar Association (chairman, natural gas committee, section of mineral law, 1954-55; member of council, section of mineral law, 1955-59; second vice chairman, 1959-60; first vice chairman, 1960-61; chairman, 1961-62; member, house of delegates, 1962-63); Federal Bar Association; American Judicature Society; Federal Power Bar Association (member, executive committee, 1955-58). U.S. Army, 1942-46, lieutenant colonel; Chairman, Joint Army-Navy-Air Force Industrial Employment Review Board, 1945-46.

Mr. RUSSELL. Mr. Chairman, before Mr. Staats leaves I would like to take the opportunity to express on our behalf great appreciation for the work that has been done in this area by Mr. Staats and his associates, the opportunities for exchange of views which they afforded to us, and we are very pleased that the project has moved forward as it has with their help.