

FISCAL ANALYSIS OF FOREIGN ASSISTANCE

[Prepared by the staff of the

	Executive request		Authorization
	Appropriation	Authorization	Committee on Foreign Affairs	House	Committee on Foreign Relations
	(1)	(2)	(3)	(4)	(5)
Sec. 202(a): Development Loan Fund.	$1,060,000,000	(1)	-----	$900,000,000	(1)
Sec. 212: Development grants....	257,000,000	$257,000,000	$217,000,000	217,000,000	$225,000,000
Sec. 214: American schools and hospitals abroad.	22,000,000	² 22,000,000	³ 12,000,000	³ 12,000,000	(4)
Sec. 232: Surveys of investment opportunities.			-----		-----
Sec. 252: Alliance for Progress....	{ 600,000,000	(1)	-----	450,000,000	(1)
	¹¹ 50,000,000	50,000,000	-----		50,000,000
Sec. 302: International organizations.	136,050,000	136,050,000	136,050,000	136,050,000	136,050,000
Sec. 402: Supporting assistance --	435,000,000	435,000,000	380,000,000	380,000,000	400,000,000
Sec. 451: Contingency fund.	300,000,000	300,000,000	200,000,000	150,000,000	175,000,000
Sec. 504: Military assistance.	1,405,000,000	1,405,000,000	1,225,000,000	1,000,000,000	1,300,000,000
Sec. 637: Administrative expenses:
(a) AID.	57,250,000	57,250,000	54,000,000	54,000,000	52,000,000
(b) State Department.	3,025,000	(1)	-----	-----	-----
Public Law 86-735, sec. 2: Social Progress Trust Fund.	200,000,000	200,000,000	200,000,000	200,000,000	175,000,000
Total.	4,525,325,000	2,862,300,000	2,424,050,000	¹⁴ 3,499,050,000	2,513,050,000
	¹³ (4,529,615,000)

¹ Previously authorized.

² The executive proposed an amendment to sec. 214 of the act containing a continuing authorization without annual limitation and authorizing the use of foreign currencies owned by the United States for assistance to American schools and hospitals abroad.

³ Of this sum not to exceed $2,200,000 is available for direct dollar costs in carrying out sec. 214(b) of the act and $2,000,000 is available solely for the purchase of foreign currencies owned by the United States.

⁴ The Senate committee accepted the executive request for an open authorization.

⁵ This sum is the amended executive request.

⁶ Of this sum not to exceed $2,200,000 is available for direct dollar costs for United States founded or sponsored hospitals abroad and $4,700,000 is available solely for the purchase of U.S.-owned foreign currencies.

⁷ The Senate committee did not reduce the authorization for the Alliance for Progress for which Congress had previously authorized $600,000,000. It is included in this column for purposes of comparison with House action.

⁸ Of which $350,000,000 is for loans and $80,000,000 for development grants.

⁹ Of which $425,000,000 is for loans and $100,000,000 for development grants.