EXHIBIT 35A—ALASKA—LAWS OF ALASKA, 1964

CHAPTER 36

AN ACT Relating to examinations in which polygraphs or other lie-detector devices are used

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

SECTION 1. AS 23.10 is amended by adding a new section to article 1 to read:

SEC. 23.10.037. Lie-Detector Tests. (a) No person either personally or through an agent or representative may request or suggest to a person in his employ or to a person who has an application for employment pending before him or require as a condition of employment that the employee or applicant submit to an examination in which a polygraph or other lie-detecting device is used.

(b) The provisions of (a) of this section do not apply to the state or a political subdivision of the state when dealing with policemen in its employ or with persons applying to be employed as policeman.

(c) In this section "person" includes the state and a political subdivision of the state.

(d) A person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, is punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both.

Law without signature April 2, 1964.

EXHIBIT 35B—CALIFORNIA

Chapter 1881 of Statutes and Amendments to the Codes, California, 1963, page 3866, reads as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 432.2 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

"432.2 No employer shall demand or require any applicant for employment or prospective employment or any employee to submit to or take a polygraph, lie detector or similar test or examination as a condition of employment or continued employment. The prohibition of this section does not apply to the federal government or any agency thereof or the state government or any agency or local subdivision thereof, including, but not limited to, counties, cities, cities and counties, cities, district, authorities, and agencies."

EXHIBIT 35C—ILLINOIS

(SMITH-HURD, ILLINOIS STATUTES, ANNOTATED, TITLE 38, SEC. 951 ET SEQ.)

AN ACT To provide for licensing and regulating detection of deception examiners, and to make an appropriation in connection therewith
