

tial justice has not been done in an examination, he may order a reexamination by the same or other examiners.

SEC. 8. Applications for original licenses shall be made to the Department in writing on forms prescribed by the Department and shall be accompanied by the required fee, which shall not be returnable. Any such application shall require such information as in the judgment of the Department will enable the Department to pass on the qualifications of the applicant for a license.

SEC. 9. The license of an examiner which has not been revoked or is not suspended shall be renewed annually upon payment of the required fee by the examiner.

SEC. 10. Each nonresident applicant for an original license or a renewal license, shall file an irrevocable consent that actions against the applicant may be filed in any appropriate court of any county or municipality of this State in which the plaintiff resides or in which some part of the transaction occurred out of which the alleged cause of action arose and that process in any action may be served on the applicant by leaving two copies thereof with the Director of the Department. Such consent shall stipulate and agree that such service of process shall be taken and held to be valid and binding for all purposes. The Director shall send forthwith one copy of the process to the applicant at the address shown on the records of the Department by registered or certified mail.

SEC. 11. A person is qualified to receive a license as an examiner:

A. Who is at least 21 years of age; and

B. Who is a citizen of the United States; and

C. Who establishes that he is a person of honesty, truthfulness, integrity and moral fitness; and

D. Who has not been convicted of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or a felony, or who has not been released or discharged under other than honorable conditions from any of the armed services of the United States; and

E. Who has passed an examination conducted by the Examiner Committee, or under its supervision, to determine his competency to obtain a license to practice as an examiner; and

F. Who has had conferred upon him an academic degree, at least at the baccalaureate level, from a college or university accredited by the Department; and

G. Who has satisfactorily completed not less than six months of internship training.

SEC. 12. The Department shall issue an internship license to a trainee upon application and payment of the required fee which application shall contain such information as may be reasonably required by the Department.

An internship license shall be valid for the term of twelve months from the date of issue. The Department may renew or extend any internship license upon good cause shown for any term not to exceed twelve months.

SEC. 13. Each license shall be issued for the term of one calendar year or for such part thereof as remains at the time of the issuance thereof. Each license shall be renewed during the month of November of each year. Each license not renewed during November of each year shall expire on December 1, of that year. An examiner whose license has expired may be reinstated at any time within five years after the expiration thereof, by making a renewal application therefor and by paying the renewal license fee and all lapsed renewal fees for each year since the expiration of his license. However, any examiner whose license expired while he was (1) in Federal service on active duty with the Armed Forces of the United States, or the State militia called into service or training, or (2) in training or education under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the military service, may have his license renewed, reinstated or restored without paying any lapsed renewal fees if within two years after honorable termination of such service, training or education except under conditions other than honorable, he furnishes the Department with satisfactory evidence to the effect that he has been so engaged and that his service, training or education has been so terminated.

A license or duplicate license must be prominently displayed at the principal place of business of every examiner. Each license shall be signed by the Director and shall be issued under the seal of the Department.

Notice in writing shall be given to the Department by such license holder of any change of principal business location whereupon, the Department shall issue a new license for the unexpired period upon payment of the required fee. A change of business location without notification to the Department and without the issuance by it of a new license shall automatically suspend the license theretofore issued.
