

by the Department, either personally or by registered or certified mail as provided in this Act for the service of the notice of hearing. Within twenty days after such service, the respondent may present to the Department a motion in writing for a rehearing, which written motion shall specify the particular grounds therefor. If no motion for rehearing is filed, then upon the expiration of the time specified for filing such a motion, or if a motion for rehearing is denied, then upon such denial the Director may enter an order in accordance with recommendations of the Committee. If the respondent shall order and pay for a transcript of the record within the time for filing a motion for rehearing, the twenty day period within which such a motion may be filed shall commence upon the delivery of the transcript to the respondent.

SEC. 19. Any circuit or superior court or any judge thereof, either in term time or vacation, may, upon application of the Director or of the applicant or licensee against whom proceedings upon section 17 of this Act are pending, enter an order requiring the attendance of witnesses and their testimony, and the production of documents, papers, files, books, and records in connection with any hearing in any proceedings under that section. The court or judge may compel obedience to its or his order by proceedings for contempt.

SEC. 20. Any person affected by a final administrative decision of the Department may have such decision reviewed judicially by the circuit or superior court of the county wherein such person resides. If the plaintiff in the review proceeding is not a resident of this State, the venue shall be in Sangamon County. The provisions of the "Administrative Review Act", approved May 8, 1945, and all amendments and modifications thereof, and the rules adopted pursuant thereto, shall apply to and govern all proceedings for the judicial review of final administrative decisions of the Department hereunder. The term "administrative decision" is defined as in Section 1 of said "Administrative Review Act".

The Department shall not be required to certify the record of the proceeding unless the plaintiff in the review proceedings shall first pay to the Department the sum of 75¢ per page of such record. Exhibits shall be certified without cost.

SEC. 21. Upon the revocation or suspension of any license, the licensee shall forthwith surrender the license or licenses to the Department and if the licensee fails to do so, the Department shall have the right to seize the same.

SEC. 22. The Director, on the recommendation of the Committee, may issue regulations, consistent with the provisions of this Act, for the administration and enforcement thereof and may prescribe forms which shall be issued in connection therewith.

SEC. 23. No action or counterclaim shall be maintained by any person in any court in this State with respect to any agreement or services for which a license is required by this Act or to recover the agreed price or any compensation under any such agreement, or for such services for which a license is required by this Act without alleging and providing that such person had a valid license at the time of making such agreement or doing such work.

SEC. 24. If any person violates the provision of this Act, the Director may, in the name of the people of the State of Illinois, through the Attorney General of the State of Illinois, apply, in any court of competent jurisdiction, for an order enjoining such violation or for an order enforcing compliance with this Act. Upon the filing of a verified petition in such court, the court or any judge thereof, if satisfied by affidavit or otherwise that such person has violated this Act, may issue a temporary injunction, without notice or bond, enjoining such continued violation, and if it is established that such person has violated or is violating this Act, the court, or any judge thereof, may summarily try and punish the offender for contempt of court. Proceedings under this section shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, all other remedies and penalties provided by this Act.

SEC. 25. An order or a certified copy thereof, over the seal of the Department and purporting to be signed by the Director, shall be prima facie proof thereof:

- (a) That such signature is the genuine signature of the Director;
- (b) That such Director is duly appointed and qualified;
- (c) That the Committee and the members thereof are qualified to act.
