

(2) An examiner whose license has expired may, at any time within five years after the expiration thereof, obtain a renewal license by making a renewal application therefor and by paying a renewal license fee for each year since the expiration of his license; provided, however, any examiner whose license expired while he was (a) on active duty with the Armed Forces of the United States, or (b) called into service or training with the State Militia, or (c) in a training or education program under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the military service, may have his license renewed without paying any intervening renewal license fee if within two years after termination of service, training or education, except under conditions other than honorable, he furnished the department an affidavit to the effect that he has been so engaged and that his service, training or education has been so terminated. The commissioner shall, before issuing the renewal license, investigate each applicant during the expiration period.

(3) Each trainee's license shall be issued for the term of eighteen months. The department may renew or extend a trainee's license upon good cause shown for any term not to exceed eighteen months.

SEC. 6. (1) A license or duplicate license must be prominently displayed at each place of business of every examiner or trainee. The fee for a duplicate license is five dollars. Each license shall be signed by the commissioner and shall be issued under the seal of the department.

(2) Notice in writing shall be given to the department by such license holder of any change of principal business location whereupon, the department shall issue a new license for the unexpired period without charge. A change of business location without notification to the department and without the issuance by it of a new license shall automatically suspend the license theretofore issued.

SEC. 7. Each nonresident applicant for a trainee's license or examiner's license or a renewal license shall file an irrevocable consent that actions against the applicant may be filed in any appropriate court of any county or municipality of this Commonwealth in which the plaintiff resides or in which some part of the transaction occurred out of which the alleged cause of action arose and that process in any action may be served on the applicant by leaving two copies thereof with the commissioner of the department. Such consent shall stipulate and agree that such service of process shall be valid and binding for all purposes. The commissioner shall send forthwith one copy of the process to the applicant by registered or certified mail at the address shown on the records of the department.

SEC. 8. The department may deny, suspend or revoke any license on any one or more of the following grounds:

(1) Material misstatement in the application for a license or in the application for a renewal license.

(2) Wilful disregard or violation of this Act or of any regulation or rule issued pursuant thereto.

(3) If the holder of any license has been adjudged guilty of the commission of a felony or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude.

(4) Making any wilful misrepresentation or false promises or causing to be printed any false or misleading advertisement for the purpose of directly or indirectly obtaining business or trainees.

(5) Having demonstrated unworthiness or incompetency to act as an examiner or trainee, as defined under this Act, in such manner as to effect the interests of the public.

(6) Allowing one's license under this Act to be used by an unlicensed person in violation of the provisions of this Act.

(7) Wilfully aiding or abetting another in the violation of this Act or of any regulation or rule issued pursuant thereto.

(8) Where the licensed holder has been adjudged mentally ill, mentally deficient, or in need of mental treatment as provided in the Mental Health Code.

(9) Failing, within a reasonable time, to provide information requested by the department as a result of a formal or informal complaint to the department, which would indicate a violation of this Act.

SEC. 9. Any unlawful act or violation of any of the provisions of this Act upon the part of any examiner or trainee shall not be cause for revocation of the license of any other examiner for whom the offending examiner may have been employed, unless it shall appear to the satisfaction of the department that the examiner has wilfully aided or abetted the actions or activities of the offending examiner or trainee.

SEC. 10. The department shall publish, at least annually, a list of the names and addresses of all examiners and trainees and of all persons whose licenses
