

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION, RULES AND REGULATIONS

Information

§ 0.411 Public information

Any person desiring to obtain information may do so by writing or coming in person to any of the Commission's offices. A broader range of information and more comprehensive information facilities are available at the Commission's main office in Washington, D.C., however, and inquiries of a general nature should ordinarily be submitted to that office.

§ 0.413 General information office

The Office of Reports and Information is located in the New Post Office Building. Here the public may obtain copies of public notices of Commission actions, formal documents adopted by the Commission and other public releases, as they are issued. Back issues of public releases are available for inspection in this Office. Copies of fact sheets which answer recurring questions about the Commission's functions may be obtained from this Office.

§ 0.415 Public reference rooms

Public reference rooms are maintained by the Commission where the public may inspect any material which is available for public inspection in accordance with § 0.417. Unless otherwise indicated, these rooms are located in the New Post Office Building, 13th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C. They are as follows:

(a) The Broadcast and Docket Reference Room. Here the public may inspect all broadcast applications and files relating thereto, lists described in §§ 0.419, 0.421, and 0.425, dockets relating to all Commission matters which have been designated for hearing or which are the subject of rule making proceedings, any other docketed matters, and undocketed petitions for rule making.

(b) The public may inspect all safety and special applications and files relating thereto at the offices of the Divisions of the Safety and Special Radio Services Bureau which process such applications. The categories of radio stations in the Safety and Special Radio Services, and the Divisions concerned therewith, are listed in § 1.951 of this chapter. The Marine Radio Division, the Public Safety Radio Division, and the Amateur and Citizens Radio Division are located in the 1101 Building, 11th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D.C. In addition, a complete file concerning amateur radio operators is available for inspection in the Amateur License Reference Room, which also is located in the 1101 Building.

(c) Information concerning applications filed by commercial radio operators may be obtained at the 1101 Building, 11th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D.C.

(d) The Common Carrier Reference Rooms, located in the 1101 Building, 11th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue NW. Here the public may inspect the following:

(1) All annual and other reports filed by common carriers pursuant to section 219(a) of the Communications Act.

(2) The schedules for all charges for interstate and foreign wire or radio communications filed pursuant to section 203 of the Communications Act.

(3) Contracts, agreements, or arrangements between carriers filed pursuant to section 211(a) of the Communications Act.

(4) All applications for common carrier authorizations, both radio and non-radio, and files relating thereto.

(e) The Experimental Services Branch of the Technical Division of the Office of the Chief Engineer. Here the public may inspect experimental license files.

(f) The Frequency Registration and Notification Branch of the Frequency Allocation and Treaty Division, Office of Chief Engineer. Here the public may inspect the frequency records of the Commission.

(g) The Technical Standards Branch of the Technical Division of the Office of the Chief Engineer. Here the public may inspect the Radio Equipment Lists (lists of type-approved and type-accepted equipment).

§ 0.417 Inspection of records

(a) Subject to the provisions of sections 4(j) and 606 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the following Commission records are open to public inspection:

(1) Tariff schedules required to be filed under section 203 of the Communications Act, all documents filed in connection therewith, and all communications related thereto.
