QUESTION 8

In what circumstances are private parties dealing with your agency required in any manner to resort to organization or procedure not published in the Federal Register (see sec. 3(a) of the Administrative Procedure Act) ?

The answers to this question were about 100 percent in agreement with each other ; namely, none. There were, however, a number of exceptions, which are as follows :

A. Department of Agriculture.—Insofar as there has not been time to modify the public organizational description or statement of functions and procedures to conform with changes made in the organization and procedure.

B. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.—Applicants for certain types of grants may have to refer to manuals or kits published specifically for their guidance and which contain more detailed instructions on the grant application procedures.

C. Department of Treasury:

1. Bureau of Accounts.—None, except rules addressed to and served upon named persons in accordance with law.

2. Internal Revenue Service.—Revenue procedures of limited application ; however, they are published in Internal Revenue Service bulletins and in the technical information releases.

D. National Science Foundation.—None except all of the material in the Federal Register has gone out of date.

E. Tennessee Valley Authority.—TVA and contractor may resolve any controversy through successive appeals to the contracting officer and the TVA Gen-
