

Post Office Department.-----	1. Orders issued by the Department in administrative fraud, lottery, and obscenity proceedings, and in proceedings relating to the issuance and revocation of 2d-class mailing permits are available for public inspection in the Department's law library. 2. Public inspections.	None.	None—other than those made available for inspection in accordance with published rules.	1. Letters to members of the public frequently contain interpretations and legal opinions. Department volumes of the Department's chief legal officer up to 1951. 2. Postal publications may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office. 4. Formal records of a proceeding in which a hearing has been held or offered may be inspected by persons have a proper interest in them. 5. All other records may be inspected by persons if permitted to do so by the head of a bureau or office in the Post Office Department. In such circumstances a number of items are taken into consideration.
Department of State.-----	All passport regulations having as their basic opinions, orders, and precedents are published in the Federal Register.	Interpretations and legal opinions generally are for use of the Secretary and other officials.	Applicable only to the issuance of U.S. passports.	Historical records: 1. Transmitted to National Archives. 2. Foreign relations of the United States. 3. American Foreign Policy. 4. U.S. treaties and other international agreements. Interpretations and opinions: 1. Inquiries from public treated on ad hoc basis. 2. Information available depending on nature of inquiry.
Agency for International Development.	1. Public inspection. 2. Code of Federal Regulations. 3. The Government contractor. 4. Federal Register. 5. List of ineligible supplies.	None.	None.	1. Information staff office. 2. Businessmen's information center. 3. Documents available for inspection. 4. Inquiries.