

3. National security. 4. Information received from another agency, 5 U.S.C. 139(b).	Doubtful that private party has had to resort to anything not published in Federal Register.	Not applicable.	Not applicable.	Only available to personnel of bureau. Not published in Federal Register.	Published charts and final extracts of geodetic and seismic data.
Coast and Geodetic Survey.	1. Records and files are sold to public. 2. Unless disclosure of information is confidential it is available to public. 3. Personnel records only disclosed in compliance with applicable statutes.	Not applicable.	Not applicable.	Not applicable.	Record of hearings of public accommodation cases.
Community Relations Service.	Sec. 1003(b) of Civil Rights Act requires the concealment activities of the Service be conducted "in confidence and without publicity."	None.	There have been no cases of this type.	There have been no circumstances of this type. (None.)	None.
Bureau of International Commerce.	1. 18 U.S.C. 1905; 15 U.S.C. 176(a); sec. 6(c) of Export Control Act of 1949, as amended; and par. 382.14 of the Comprehensive Export Schedule (all relate to disclosure of information). 2. Budget and personnel records—Department Administrative Order No. 202-20; also see 203-1. 3. Staff level working papers not involving final actions. Not available to public.	None.	None.	All are excepted from publication.
Office of Management and Organization (Great Lakes Pilotage Administration).	Officers of Department of Commerce are authorized to furnish persons properly and directly concerned information and copies of documents or other papers or matters of official record except where to release secret material, the release of which must be approved by the Secretary.	None.	None.		