

Federal Power Commission-----	1. Release to public immediately upon issuance in Commission's Office of Public Information. 2. Mailing list.	None.	Every order or opinion cited or used as precedent is available to public in printed or other form.	1. 18 CFR 1.36 (c), (d)—All matters of official record shall be available for public reference. 2. Public records available for public reference.
Federal Reserve System-----	1. Press release. 2. Federal Register. 3. On file and available at Board's office or a Federal Reserve bank. 4. Board's monthly bulletin. 5. A weekly H. 2 and K. 3 list.	Proceeding conducted pursuant to section 30 of Banking Act of 1933 for removal of directors and/or officers of State member banks.	None.	1. See answer 3. 2. Matters of official record, rules soon available for inspection, study and copying in Board's office. 3. Publications Services Unit. 4. Mailing list. 5. Press release.
Federal Trade Commission-----	1. FTC decisions. 2. Available on request. 3. Public docket room. 4. Federal Register.	None.	None.	1. Federal Register. 2. See answers to questions 2(e) and 2(d).
Foreign Claims Settlement Commission of the United States.	1. Public dockets of claims. 2. Decisions on claims are posted on public bulletin board. 3. Decisions available for public inspection upon request.	1. Where Commission determines them to be held confidential.	None.	1. Files on particular claims available for inspection only by claimant involved or authorized representative. 2. Legal opinions and decisions available to public in Commission offices, request. 3. Minimum charge, copies of opinions and decisions.
General Services Administration--	1. Board of Contract Appeals Decisions, published by Commerce Clearinghouse. a. Available for public inspection. 2. The Government Contractor. 3. Federal contract reports.	None.	May be given consideration in other proceedings involving internal management affairs, such as personnel actions.	1. Current GSA records, records in National Archives, records in Presidential Libraries, etc., may be requested of a designated official and to explain his interest. 2. At claimant's request records can be copied.