

National Labor Relations Board.....	1. Labor relations reporter. 2. Commerce Clearing House. 3. Prentiss-Hall. 4. Made available to public in Washington or regional offices. 5. News media. 6. Copies by request. 7. Weekly summary upon request.	None.	None.	Public inspection at any time upon request. (See answer 3.)
National Mediation Board.....	See answer 6.	Pt. 1202.15 of Board rules outlines the policy and practice.	None.	Files, records, and opinions which result from public hearings in connection with the Board's activities are available without restriction to the general public
National Science Foundation.....	None.	None.	None.	1. "Federal Council for Science and Technology," Feb. 11, 1963. 2. Foundation's grant booklet.
Railroad Retirement Board.....	Legal principals are summarized in the— 1. "Administrative," Court Review." 2. Board's annual report. 3. Railroad Retirement Board— Legal opinions.	1. Final orders in the adjudication of individual claims for benefits under acts it administers.	None.	1. See answer 3. 2. Opinions furnished to any interested persons upon request and records and files available to inspection subject to limitations of answer 7.
Renegotiation Board.....	1. Any person may inspect during business hours in Washington, any official Board actions (transcripts) granting contract exemptions. a. Can be held confidential for good cause.	1. Opinions and orders; held confidential by reason of the confidential data furnished by contractors and relating to their business. 2. Order; agreement to eliminate excessive profits.	None.	1. Legal opinions by renegotiation rulings and renegotiation bulletins. 2. Records; person directly concerned may apply in writing to the Secretary for access. 3. See answer 3(1).