

covered in the Federal Register.
2. 12 U.S.C. 1701(d)-3(d), information from individuals or groups. 3. 5 U.S.C. 135(b), information from another agency. 4. Executive Order No. 10450, national security. 5. Executive Order No. 10501, defense information. 6. Executive Order No. 10561, official personnel folders. 7. Operation files, unreviewed audit, and investigatory reports.
Indian Claims Commission.	Do not issue regular reports or publications; however, findings of fact and opinions are sent to all interested parties and are available to public if they call at the office. No secret or confidential opinions.	None.	Transportation of explosives for the Armed Forces by Railway Express Agency, Inc., on passenger trains in time of war or a national emergency proclaimed by the President.	All.			Publication has been selective on the grounds that the bulk of regulations is of little concern to public. Generally all regulations are published as part of the NASA insurance system.		1. Tariffs, rate schedules, powers of attorney, etc. 2. Annual and other periodic reports filed. 3. Annual reports, maps, profiles, etc. 4. Docket files, including pleadings, depositions, exhibits, etc.
1. Examination and inspection of carrier records. 2. Investigatory files (of carriers). 3. Filing of contracts by motor carriers except as part of record at formal proceeding. 4. 1-percent waybill sample. 5. Routing of any property delivered to common carrier. 6. Impede administration of Interstate Commerce Commission Act. 7. Carriers filing supplemental traffic reports. 8. Accident reports of carriers. 9. Excess hours of service of drivers available only upon written request. 10. Internal memorandum.		None.
Interstate Commerce Commission.
1. Executive Order No. 10501, interest of national security. 2. Trade secrets and confidential financial information, 18 U.S.C. 1905. 3. Security and personnel records and reports.		None.
National Aeronautics and Space Administration.									See 44 U.S.C. 366.