

| Renegotiation Board.....            | 1. Pt. 1480 of Renegotiation Board regulations.2. Federal tax returns, Federal tax data, revenue agents reports, in Renegotiation Board's custody.3. Executive Order No. 10501; top secret, confidential, restricted data.4. 18 U.S.C. 1965; trade secrets, operations, processes, etc.5. Internal memorandum.                                                                                                                                     | None.           | Contracts or subcontracts, renegotiation of which would jeopardize secrecy required in the public interest.See rule 1480.4(a) of Renegotiation Board regulation. | 1. General orders.2. Operational bulletins.3. Administrative orders. | 1. Agreements, orders, reports, records, files, correspondence, memoranda and other data, documents relating to any renegotiation proceeding.  |
|-------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Securities and Exchange Commission. | 1. Investigatory files.2. Informants as to violations of law.3. All material treated as nonpublic—to facilitate free communication among Government officials and to protect members of public from unfair injury.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | None.           | None.                                                                                                                                                                | All.                                                                         | See 17 C.F.R. 201.25,17 C.F.R. 200.80, rule 25 of the Commission's Rules of Practice.                                                      |
| Selective Service System....        | 1. 32 CFR 1606.31.2. 32 CFR 1606.32 (1), (2), (3), (4) (b), (c), (d).3. Person must be properly identified as a person, or as an authorized representative of an agency entitled to so obtain such information.4. Reason for above—personal nature of information.                                                                                                                                                                                     | None.           | None.                                                                                                                                                                | All.                                                                         | Records and files created or obtained in carrying out its functions with respect to registration, examination, classification, selection, etc. |
| Small Business Administration.      | 1. Generally, records and files not available to public.2. Official information and records classified under Executive Order No. 10601.3. Material submitted in confidence in order that Small Business Administration may determine whether financial or other assistance should be granted; such disclosure would injure reputation of the affected firm, especially if denied assistance.4. Sec. 1700 of Small Business Administration regulations. | Did not answer. | Did not answer. However, one circumstance would be: Official information and records classified under Executive Order No. 10601.                                     | Generally all.                                                               | Did not answer.                                                                                                                                |