

Rules.

59.—(1.) The Governor-General may make rules as to the conduct of the proceedings of the Compensation Board and, in particular, as to—

- (a) the summoning and examination of witnesses and the production of books, documents and papers;
- (b) the administration of oaths and affirmations;
- (c) the protection of members of the Board and of witnesses summoned to attend or appearing before it;
- (d) the appearance or representation before the Board of the claimant and of the Commission; and
- (e) the fees payable to witnesses.

(2.) The Acts Interpretation Act 1901-1941 shall apply to rules made under this section in like manner as it applies to regulations.

PART VI.—PENALTIES AND PROCEDURE.

Recovery of fares or charges.

60. If on demand any person fails to pay the fares or charges due to the Commission in respect of any service rendered by the Commission, the Commission—

- (a) may detain and sell all or any of the goods of the person which are in his possession, and out of the moneys arising from the sale retain the fares or charges so payable, and all charges and expenses of the detention, and shall render the surplus, if any, of the moneys arising by the sale and such of the goods as remain unsold, to the person entitled to that surplus; or
- (b) may recover the fares and charges in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Damage to be made good in addition to penalty.

61. If any person inflicts, through any act, neglect, or default whereby he has, on conviction, incurred any penalty imposed by this or any other Act, any damage upon any aircraft or other property vested in the Commission he shall be liable to pay that damage in addition to the penalty, and the amount of that damage shall be determined by the court by which he was convicted.

Arrest of offenders.

62.—(1.) Any officer, employee or agent of the Commission and any person called by him to his assistance may seize and detain any person who has committed any offence against the provisions of this Act and whose name and residence are unknown to the officer, employee or agent, and may, without any warrant or other authority than this Act, convey him with all convenient despatch before a court of summary jurisdiction.

(2.) The court may proceed with all convenient despatch to the hearing and determination of the complaint against the offender.

(3.) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other Act, any justice or justices of the peace of a State sitting at any place as a court for the summary punishment of offences under the law of the
