

"(2.) Without limiting the generality of the last preceding sub-section, the International Civil Aviation Organization has in Australian territory juridical personality and the capacity—

- (a) to contract;
- (b) to acquire and dispose of real and personal property; and
- (c) to institute legal proceedings.

"(3.) The archives and other documents of the International Civil Aviation Organization kept in Australian territory are inviolable.

Establishment and conduct of Aeronautical
Information Service.

"7.—(1.) The Minister may establish and conduct a service to be known as the Aeronautical Information Service.

"(2.) The functions of the Aeronautical Information Service are to collect and disseminate aeronautical information and instructions relating to the safety, regularity and efficiency of air navigation, being information and instructions with respect to—

- (a) aerodromes;
- (b) air traffic control services and facilities;
- (c) communication and air navigation services and facilities;
- (d) meteorological services and facilities;
- (e) search and rescue services and facilities;
- (f) procedures and regulatory requirements connected with air navigation; and
- (g) hazards to air navigation.

Publication of Aeronautical
Information
Publications and Notices to Airmen.

"8.—(1.) The Aeronautical Information Service shall publish publications to be known as Aeronautical Information Publications and notices to be known as Notices to Airmen.

"(2.) There shall be published in Aeronautical Information Publications the aeronautical information and instructions that, by this Act or the regulations, are required to be so published and such other aeronautical information and instructions as are of a lasting character essential to air navigation.

"(3.) There shall be published in Notices to Airmen the aeronautical information and instructions that, by this Act or the regulations, are required to be so published and such other aeronautical information and instructions as—

- (a) are of a temporary character; or
- (b) cannot be made available with sufficient expedition by publication in Aeronautical Information Publications.

"(4.) The Director-General shall forward copies of Aeronautical Information Publications and Notices to Airmen to the International Civil Aviation Organization.
