

(6.) In a prosecution under this Act, a document purporting to be a statutory declaration furnished in accordance with sub-section (3.) of this section shall, unless the contrary is shown, be taken to be such a statutory declaration, duly made and furnished.

12.—(1.) For the purposes of this Act, a document issued by an officer of a State or Territory of the Commonwealth having duties in connexion with the law of that State or Territory relating to the registration of motor vehicles, bearing his written, stamped or printed signature and stating that, during a specified period or on a specified date, a motor vehicle described in the document was registered under that law in the name of a specified person is evidence of the matters stated in the document.

Evidence of registration of motor vehicle.

(2.) In a prosecution for an offence against this Act a document purporting to be a document referred to in the last preceding sub-section is admissible in evidence as such a document without proof of the signature of the person by whom it purports to have been issued or of the fact that he was an officer referred to in that sub-section.

13.—(1.) Where an authorized person has reason to believe that a parking infringement has been committed in respect of a vehicle, he may serve or cause to be served a parking infringement notice in accordance with this section.

Parking infringement notices.

(2.) A parking infringement notice may be served—

- (a) by serving the notice personally upon the person who appears to have committed the infringement or upon any person who is driving, or appears to be in control of, the vehicle;
- (b) by securely affixing the notice to the vehicle in a conspicuous position; or
- (c) by serving the notice upon the owner of the vehicle personally or by post.

(3.) Where a parking infringement notice is to be served by post upon the owner of a vehicle, it may be addressed to him—

- (a) at his last known place of residence or business; or
- (b) in the case of a vehicle registered under the law of a State or Territory of the Commonwealth relating to the registration of motor vehicles, at the latest address of the owner in the record of registration of the vehicle.

(4.) In the case of a parking infringement notice that is served by affixing the notice to a vehicle, the notice shall be addressed to "the owner" of the vehicle without further description of the owner, and in every other case the notice shall have clearly shown on its face the full name or the surname and initials and address of the person upon whom it is served.