

PART IV.—OTHER CARRIAGE TO WHICH THIS ACT APPLIES.

Definitions.

26.—(1.) In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears—

“airline licence” means an airline licence in force under the Air Navigation Regulations;

“baggage”, in relation to a passenger, means—

(a) registered baggage; or

(b) baggage, personal effects or other articles, not being registered baggage, in the possession of the passenger, or in the possession of another person (being a person accompanying the passenger or a servant or agent of the carrier) on behalf of the passenger, while the passenger is on board an aircraft for the purposes of carriage to which this Part applies or during the course of any of the operations of embarking or disembarking;

“commercial transport operations” means operations in which an aircraft is used, for hire or reward, for the carriage of passengers or cargo;

“contract” includes an arrangement made without consideration;

“registered baggage”, in relation to a passenger, means baggage, personal effects or other articles registered with the carrier as baggage intended to be carried under a contract for carriage of the passenger to which this Part applies;

“the Air Navigation Regulations” means the Air Navigation Regulations in force under the Air Navigation Act 1920-1950, and includes those Regulations as in force by virtue of a law of a State.

(2.) For the purposes of this Part, where, by reason of a contract or charter or other contract between the holder of an airline licence and another person, persons or baggage are or is carried, or are or is to be carried, in an aircraft while it is being operated by the holder of the airline licence, that contract shall be deemed to be a contract of carriage providing for that carriage.

27.—(1.) This Part applies to the carriage of a passenger where the passenger is or is to be carried in an aircraft being operated by the holder of an airline licence in the course of commercial transport operations, or in an aircraft being operated in the course of trade and commerce between Australia and
