

part of Australia in which the indictment was filed and there be delivered to the custody of a person having authority to arrest him, and may make such further orders as it thinks necessary for facilitating the carrying into effect of the first-mentioned order.

(5.) If—

(a) the Attorney-General—

(i) does not, before the time at which the defendant is to appear before a court, notify that court that he does not intend to file an indictment against the defendant in a court of another part of Australia; and

(ii) does not, at or before that time, notify the first-mentioned court that he has filed such an indictment; and

(b) the defendant is in custody, the first-mentioned court shall, at that time, make an order directing that he be released.

(6.) Where an order has been made under sub-section (1.) of this section in relation to an indictment, the proceedings on that indictment do not, and that order does not, prevent or prejudice any other indictment, or any information, against the defendant, whether on the same charge or on any other charge.

25.—(1.) The person in command of an aircraft to which Part II. or Part III. of this Act applies may, on board the aircraft, with such assistance as is necessary, arrest without warrant a person whom he finds committing, or reasonably suspects of having committed, or of having attempted to commit, an offence against that Part, and that person in command or a person authorized by him may hold the person so arrested in custody until he can be brought before a Justice of the Peace or other proper authority to be dealt with in accordance with law.

(2.) The person in command of an aircraft to which Part II. or Part III. of this Act applies may, where he considers it necessary so to do in order to prevent an offence against that Part or to avoid danger to the safety of the aircraft or of persons on board the aircraft, with such assistance as he thinks necessary—

(a) place a person who is on board the aircraft under restraint or in custody; and

(b) if the aircraft is not in the course of a flight—remove a person from the aircraft.

26.—(1.) If, in relation to an aircraft to which Part II. or Part III. of this Act applies, the person in command of the aircraft or any person authorized in writing for the purposes of this
