

the Company or in respect of which any other certificate under this paragraph has been or is proposed to be issued, be detrimental to the stability of the domestic air transport industry; and

- (d) an obligation to furnish to the Minister, within such times as the Minister specifies, such information in respect of traffic as the Minister requires.

Consultation between airlines and Director-General.

14.—(1.) The Director-General of Civil Aviation may, from time to time, convene conferences to be attended by representatives of the Department of Civil Aviation, the Commission and the Company, for the purpose of considering matters relevant to the making of estimates and determinations by the Minister under this Part.

(2.) The Director-General shall report to the Minister any conclusions arrived at or views expressed at a conference held in pursuance of this section, and the Minister shall, before making an estimate or determination under this Part, give full consideration to any such conclusion or views.

Minister to accord Commission and Company equal treatment.

15. The Minister shall not, in the exercise of his powers under this Part, unfairly discriminate in favour of the Commission or the Company as against the other.

Australia

OTHER LEGISLATION IN FORCE

Civil Aviation (Carriers' Liability) Act 1959–1962, an act relating to carriage by air.

Civil Aviation (Carriers' Liability), No. 38 of 1962, an act to amend the Civil Aviation (Carriers' Liability) Act 1959.

Air Navigation, No. 8 of 1963, an act to amend the Air Navigation Act 1920–1961.

Crimes (Aircraft), No. 64 of 1963, an act to make provision with respect to crimes committed on board certain aircraft, and for other purposes.

Air Accidents (Commonwealth Liability), No. 74 of 1963, an act to provide for the payment of damages by the Commonwealth and authorities of the Commonwealth in respect of the death of, or personal injury to, certain persons travelling as passengers in aircraft.