

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for—

(a) the authorities by which any of the powers conferred by or under this Act are to be exercised;
 (aa)⁴ the regulation of air transport services, and the prohibition of the use of aircraft in such services except under the authority of and in accordance with a licence authorising the establishment of the service;

(ab)⁴ the information to be furnished, to such authorities as may be specified in the rule, by an applicant for, or the holder of, a licence authorising the establishment of an air transport service;

(b) the licensing, inspection and regulation of aerodromes, the conditions under which aerodromes may be maintained and the fees which may be charged thereat, and the prohibition or regulation of the use of unlicensed aerodromes;

(c) the inspection and control of the manufacture, repair and maintenance of aircraft and of places where aircraft are being manufactured, repaired or kept;

(d) the registration and marking of aircraft;

(e) the conditions under which aircraft may be flown, or may carry passengers, mails or goods, or may be used for industrial purposes, and the certificates, licences or documents to be carried by aircraft;

(f) the inspection of aircraft for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this Act and the rules thereunder, and the facilities to be provided for such inspection.

(g) the licensing of persons employed in the operation, manufacture, repair or maintenance of aircraft;

(h) the air-routes by which and the conditions under which aircraft may enter or leave the Union of Burma, or may fly over the Union of Burma, and the places at which aircraft shall land;

(i) the prohibition of flight by aircraft over any specified area, either absolutely or at specified times or subject to specified conditions and exceptions;

(j) the supply, supervision and control of air-route beacons, aerodrome lights, and lights at or in the neighbourhood of aerodromes or on or in the neighbourhood of air-routes;

(jj)⁵ the installation and the maintenance of lights on private property in the neighbourhood of aerodromes or on or in the neighbourhood of air-routes by the owners or occupiers of such property, the payment by the President of the Union for such installation and maintenance, and the supervision and con-
