

Definition of Warsaw Convention.

19. For the purposes of this Part of this Act and the First and Second Schedules, the expression "Warsaw Convention" or "Convention" means the convention for the unification of certain rules relating to international carriage by air which was signed at Warsaw on 12th October, 1929, and any other convention or agreement amending that convention.

PART IV

ADMINISTRATION

Appointment of Director of Civil Aviation.

20. (1) There may be appointed, for the purposes of this Act, whether by name or by office—

(a) a fit and proper person, to be or to act as the Director of Civil Aviation; and

(b) such other officers and servants as may be necessary for carrying out or giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2) The Director of Civil Aviation shall exercise, perform or discharge such powers, duties or functions as may be conferred or imposed upon, or vested in him by any Order or regulations made under this Act or as may be delegated to him by the Minister as hereinafter provided.

Delegation of powers by Minister.

21. The Minister may, for the purposes of civil aviation, generally or specially, delegate to the Director of Civil Aviation any powers (other than the power to make regulations or Orders), duties or functions conferred or imposed upon, or vested in the Minister by or under this Act.

Expenses.

22. Any sums required for the contribution from Ceylon for the International Civil Aviation Organization set up under the Chicago Convention and all expenses incurred in the administration of this Act shall be payable out of such moneys as may be provided for the purpose by Parliament.

Fees, &c., to be paid into Consolidated Fund.

23. All sums paid or recovered by way of fees, charges or fines under this Act shall be payable into the Consolidated Fund.

PART V

REGULATIONS AND ORDERS

Regulations.

24. (1) The Minister may make regulations for the purpose of carrying out or giving effect to the principles and provisions of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by subsection (1), the Minister may make regulations in respect of all matters for which regulations are required or authorized to be made under this Act.
