

to carry out and maintain works on any land and to install and maintain structures and apparatus on, under, over or cross any land.

(2) Any such order may contain such provisions as appear to the Minister to be necessary or expedient for authorising persons to enter upon land for the purpose of carrying out, installing, maintaining or removing any works, structure or apparatus.

(3) The ownership of anything shall not be affected by reason only that it is placed on or under or affixed to, any land in pursuance of any such order; and so long as any such order is in force no person shall, except with the consent of the Minister, wilfully interfere with any works carried out on any land in pursuance of the order, or with anything installed on, under, over or across any land in pursuance of the order.

(4) If any person contravenes the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment; and every person who wilfully obstructs any person in the exercise of any power of entry conferred by an order under this section shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds:

Provided that proceedings for an offence under this section shall not be instituted except by or with the consent of the Attorney-General.

(5) The provisions of the First Schedule to this Act shall have effect with respect to orders under this section.

15. (1) Without prejudice to their general duties under any Act or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the Minister of Health and the Minister to make such arrangements as they think necessary—
