

under this subsection, or as to the amount of any such compensation, or as to the persons to whom it is payable, the dispute shall be referred to and determined under the law in force in Ghana relating to the acquisition of land for public purposes.

20. (1) Any notice required to be served on any person for the purposes of this Part of this Act may be served on him either by delivering it to him, or by leaving it at his proper address, or by post, so however that the notice shall not be duly served by post unless it is sent by registered letter. Notices.

(2) Any such notice required to be served upon an incorporated company or body shall be duly served if it is served on the secretary or clerk of the company or body.

(3) For the purposes, of this section and of section thirty of the Interpretation Act, 1957, the proper address of any person upon whom any such notice as aforesaid is to be served shall, in the case of the Secretary or clerk of any incorporated company or body, be that of the registered or principal office of the company or body, and in any other case be the last known address of the person to be served:

Provided that where the person to be served has furnished an address for service, his proper address for the purposes aforesaid shall be the address furnished.

(4) If it not practicable after reasonable inquiry to ascertain the name or address of any owner, lessee, or occupier of land on whom any such notice as aforesaid is to be served, the notice may be served by addressing it to him by the description of "owner," "lessee" or "occupier" of the land (describing it) to which the notice relates, and by delivering it to some person on the premises, or, if there is no person on the premises to whom it can be delivered, by affixing it, or a copy of it, to some conspicuous part of the premises.

21. Any conveyance of land, or any instrument creating or disposing of any right in or in relation to land for the purposes of this Part of this Act, shall be registered in the Registry of Instruments affecting land within the period prescribed by law. Conveyances.

22. (1) If any person trespasses on any land forming part of a Government aerodrome or an aerodrome licensed by the Minister, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five pounds: Trespassing on aerodromes.

Provided that no person shall be liable to any penalty under this section unless it is proved that, at the material time, notices warning trespassers of their liability under this section were posted so as to be readily seen and read by members of the public, in such positions on or near the boundary of the aerodrome as appear to the Court to be proper.
