giving rise to the claim, or, if the claim is made against the person who at the time was the owner of the aircraft or against his estate, that the aircraft was then in the possession or control of some other person without the authority or permission of the owner.

(2) If any person contravenes this section, he shall be liable on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred pounds or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.

(3) The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply to any aircraft if and so long as the owner thereof has deposited, and keeps deposited, with the Accountant-General, for and on behalf of the Supreme Court of Ghana, an amount at least equal to the total limit of liability appropriate to that aircraft or, where he is the owner of three or more aircraft, an amount at least equal to the aggregate of the two greatest of the total limits of liability appropriate to those aircraft respectively.

(4) In this section—

(a) the expression "authorised insurer" means any person or body of persons carrying on a marine, aviation and transit insurance business approved by the Minister for the purposes of this section; and

(b) the expression "authorised giver of securities" means either an authorised insurer or a body of persons approved by the Minister carrying on the giving of securities of the kind required by this Part of this Act, and which has deposited and keeps deposited with the Accountant-General, for the purposes of this section, the sum of fifteen thousand pounds.

Certificates of insurance or security.

27. A policy of insurance or a security shall be of no effect for the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this Part of this Act, unless and until there is delivered by the insurer to the person by whom the policy is effected, or by the giver of the security to the person to whom it is given, a certificate in such form, and containing such particulars with respect to the policy or security, as may be prescribed by the Minister, and any such certificate relating to a policy or certificate relating to a security is hereafter in this Act referred to as a "certificate of insurance" or "certificate of security," as the case may be.

Rights under policies, etc. Cap. 229.

28. The provisions of the Third Schedule to this Act (being provisions which, subject to certain adaptations, modifications and exceptions, correspond with the provisions of the Motor Vehicles (Third Party Insurance) Ordinance, referred to in the margin of the said Schedule) shall have effect in relation to policies of insurance securities and deposits required for the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this Part of this Act.

Offences in connection with policies, etc.

29. (1) If any person, with intent to obtain for himself or any other person such a policy of insurance or such a security as is required by this Part of this Act, fails to disclose a fact which he knows to be a material fact, or
