

(b) for the keeping in the Department of the Minister of a record of any returns made under paragraph (a) of this subsection;

(c) for the transmission to the Registrar-General of certified copies of such returns and records as aforesaid;

(d) for the keeping by the Registrar-General of an Air Register Book of Births and Deaths;

(e) for the keeping in the Department of the Minister of a record of persons reported to him as missing, being persons with respect to whom there are reasonable grounds for believing that they have died in consequence of an accident to an aircraft registered in Ghana;

(f) for the rectification of any such records.

(3) If any person contravenes or fails to comply with the provisions of any regulations made under this section, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

Custody and disposal of lost property.

37. (1) The Governor-General may by regulations make provision for securing the safe custody and re-delivery of any property which, while not in proper custody, is found on any premises belonging to him or under his control, or on any premises occupied by any person or corporation operating an air transport service or in any aircraft on any such premises; and any such regulations may in particular—

(a) provide for requiring charges to be paid in respect of any such property before it is re-delivered; and

(b) provide for authorising the disposal of any such property if it is not re-delivered before the expiration of such period as may be specified in the regulations.

PART VII. GENERAL

Orders and regulations.

38. (1) Any orders or regulations made by the Governor-General or the Minister under any of the enactments in this Act may contain such consequential, incidental and supplemental provisions as appear to the Governor-General or the Minister, as the case may be, to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of such order or regulations.

(2) Any reference in this Act to any order or regulations shall include a reference to any directions given under any such order or regulations.

Power to prescribe fees.

39. The Minister may, with the consent of the Minister of Finance, by notice in the Gazette prescribe the fees to be paid in respect of the issue, validation, renewal, extension or variation of any certificate, licence, or other document or the undergoing of any examination or test required by any order or regulations made under this Act, and in respect of any other matters in respect