

of which it appears to the Minister expedient for the purpose of the order or regulations to charge fees.

40. Notwithstanding that an order or a regulation made by virtue of any enactment in this Act, by the Governor-General or the Minister, as the case may be, has effect only as part of the law of Ghana, no provision contained in the order or regulation shall, on the ground that it would have extra-territorial operation, be deemed to be invalid in so far as it applies to aircraft registered in Ghana, wherever they may be, or prohibits, requires, or regulates the doing of anything by persons in, or by the personnel of, such aircraft as aforesaid, wherever they may be.

Extra-territorial effect.

For the purposes of this subsection the personnel of an aircraft shall be deemed to include the commander or other person in charge of the aircraft, and all other members of the crew of the aircraft.

41. (1) Nothing in this Act shall apply to aircraft belonging to or exclusively employed in the service of the Government of Ghana:

Savings.

Provided that the Governor-General may by order apply to any such aircraft or in connection with such aircraft to any aerodrome, land or premises, any of the said enactments or any orders or regulations made thereunder.

(2) Nothing in, or in any instrument made under this Act shall prejudice or affect the rights, powers and privileges of any general or local lighthouse authority.

42. (1) Any offence whatever committed on an aircraft registered in Ghana shall, for the purpose of conferring jurisdiction, be deemed to have been committed in any place where the offender may for the time being be.

Offences and jurisdiction.

(2) Where any offence under any enactment in this Act has been committed by a body corporate, every person who at the time of the commission of the offence was a director, general manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or was purporting to act in any such capacity, shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence, unless he proves that the offence was committed without his consent or connivance and that he exercised all such diligence to prevent the commission of the offence as he ought to have exercised having regard to the nature of his functions in that capacity and to all the circumstances.

In this subsection the expression "director" includes any person occupying the position of director, by whatever name called.

(3) The Governor-General may by order make provision as to the courts in which proceedings may be taken for enforcing any claim in respect of aircraft.

43. (1) The enactments set out in the Fifth Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed so far as they apply to

Repeal and savings.