

4. As soon as an Order has been published in the Gazette and a copy thereof has been served as provided in paragraph 1 of this Schedule, any officer authorised by the Minister in that behalf and any person employed under his supervision may enter upon the land affected and do all such acts as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of the Order:

Power to enter and do work.

Provided that in respect to an Order under section 16 of this Act this power shall not be exercised until after the owner or occupier of the land has been given a reasonable opportunity of complying with the restrictions specified in the Order, and has omitted to do so, unless the Minister certifies that its immediate exercise is necessary.

5. Except as provided in this Schedule no person shall be entitled to claim, and no action or proceeding shall be brought against the Government to recover any compensation in respect of any lands or any interest therein or any property thereon which have been damaged or otherwise injuriously affected by the acquisition of any rights under or in compliance with or the enforcement of the provisions of an Order.

Restriction
upon action against Government.

6. There shall be a right of compensation under this Schedule in respect of

Compensation.

(a) any building, crops, timber or other property removed, altered or damaged, and

(b) any land or interest in land otherwise injuriously affected, by or in consequence of the acquisition of any rights under or compliance with or the enforcement of the provisions of an Order:

Provided that no compensation shall be recoverable in respect of the imposition of restrictions on the use of land unless it can be shown that such restrictions have resulted or will result in pecuniary loss.

7. (1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, no person shall be entitled to compensation under this Schedule unless he has given notice of his claim within three months from the date of the service of notice under paragraph 2.

Notice of claim.

(2) Such claim shall be submitted to the Commissioner of Lands, giving particulars of the damage claimed to be caused, or likely to be caused, and showing, as the case may require, whether the claim is made in respect of a partial interference with, or the entire loss of any right.

(3) The period of three months prescribed by subparagraph (1) may be extended at the discretion of the Minister if it can be shown that the claimant could not have known from the inspection of the plan referred to in the Order that the injurious effects complained of would be likely to occur.
