

Article 71. There shall be punishable by a fine of from 5,000 to 50,000 drs. and by imprisonment of from 3 months to one year any person who affixes or permits the affixing of registration marks on an aircraft which are not those indicated by and recorded on its airworthiness certificate.

There shall be punishable by the same penalty any person who affixes to a private aircraft any markings designated for State aircraft, or who knowingly uses a private aircraft unlawfully bearing such markings.

In cases of violation of Articles 68, 70 and 71, of this law, the court may order confiscation of the aircraft.

Article 72. Any violation of the provisions of Article 15 by any person shall be punishable by the penalties specified in Article 70 of this law.

Article 73. There shall be punishable by a fine of from 1,000 to 15,000 drs. and in aggravated circumstances and by imprisonment up to 5 days:

- a) the pilot of an aircraft who does not keep the board documents required by the regulations,
- b) the owner of an aircraft who omits to preserve one copy of the board documents required by the regulations for two years from the date of the last record made therein;
- c) any person who does not comply with the provisions of the regulations pertaining to flights for purposes of public exhibitions,
- d) any person who violates the provisions prohibiting acrobatics and flights above inhabited places.

In case a person who violated the provisions of this article, within the same year again violates any of these provisions, the penalties specified above shall both be imposed and to their maximum extent.

Article 74. When the license of a pilot is revoked either by a court or by the Air Ministry, the pilot's certificate and such license shall be deposited with the Director of Civil Aviation for the whole time the revocation is in effect.

Any person found guilty must deposit such documents with the above mentioned office within six days from the date on which their sentence became final, otherwise they shall be punishable by a fine of from 500 to 3,000 drs. In the case of a commander of an aircraft there shall be imposed the maximum penalties provided for the case of an aircraft commander flying without certificate or license.

Article 75. Any person who enters the marked limits of an air-drome or auxiliary field or who grazes animals within these limits or who drives any vehicle or animals there, shall be punished by a fine of from 300 to 1,500 drs. or by imprisonment of from 3 to 20 days or by both of these penalties in case of repetition. If there is an accident such person shall not be entitled to compensation.

Article 76. Any person who voluntarily drops or lets fall from an aircraft in flight any object, body or substance capable of inducing accidents, or causing damage to property on the ground, shall be punishable by a fine of from 2,000 to 10,000 drs. and by imprisonment of from eight days to two months or by only one of these penalties, particularly when the drop has not caused any accident or damage.