

f) For not following the air routes or not landing at the airports according to the rules issued by the Government or contained in the operating certificate or authorization, as the case may be.

Article 277. A fine of L100.00 to L10,000.00 shall be imposed on air carriers operating under certificates or authorizations from the Government, or on technical aeronautical personnel, for any other violation of this law and the regulations issued thereunder which are not provided for in this chapter.

TITLE IV. GENERAL PROVISIONS

FIRST SECTION. RELATION BETWEEN CARRIERS AND THEIR EMPLOYEES

Article 278. Flight and other personnel aboard shall fly the time determined by the respective regulation and shall be entitled to a paid vacation of one month each year.

The ground personnel shall be entitled to vacations of the same length of time.

Article 279. Employees of air carriers who have not completed one year of service and who are dismissed from their positions without fault on their part after six months of work, shall receive cash payment for vacation accrued up to the time when they cease to be employees.

Article 280. Air carriers shall pay compensation to persons specified in the Law on Work Accidents in the amount of L30,000.00 for each member of the crew of an aircraft who dies in an air accident.

Likewise, when a member of the flight or other personnel aboard an aircraft performs duties related to his work without being assigned thereto his employer shall be liable for the compensation specified in the preceding paragraph.

Article 281. The compensation specified in the first paragraph of the preceding article shall be reduced to the sum of L20,000.00 for each member of the ground personnel, when he has to board an aircraft on matters related to his work.

Article 282. The provisions of the preceding two articles shall not affect the provisions of Article 97 of the Law on Work Accidents.

Article 283. When flight or ground personnel are transferred, transportation of the employee and his family shall be paid for by the employer. In addition, he shall receive extra wages amounting to 50% of his regular salary to cover expenses for his installation during the first month of residence at his new post.

SECOND SECTION. GENERAL AND TRANSITORY PROVISIONS

Article 284.⁴ The importation of combustibles, lubricating oils and other consumable supplies utilized in the mechanical parts and equipment of aircraft of Honduran carriers operating in the country with an operating certificate authorization or permit shall not be subject to import duty. A similar provision will apply to aircraft belonging to Honduran aviation clubs or private individuals.

⁴ Amended by Decree 174, La Gaceta, December 2, 1957.