

Article 15. If an aircraft is sold on the installment plan with the reservation of property rights, the registrar shall be informed without delay. The responsibility to submit such information shall be assumed both by the owner and the purchaser.

Such facts shall be recorded by the registrar.

If an aircraft which is registered in this country is transferred to a lessee or any other person for use in his own account, for an unspecified period or for a period of at least 14 days, each contracting party may submit information to the registration authority which shall record the facts.

Article 16. When an aircraft is manufactured on Iceland's account in a foreign country or is transferred to Icelandic ownership, and the requirements of Articles 7 and 8 relating to registration are fulfilled, the aircraft may be temporarily entered upon application in a special part of the aircraft register in accordance with a regulation of the Minister of Aviation.

Article 17. If an aircraft is under construction in this country it may be entered temporarily upon the application of the owner in the special part of the aircraft register only if the construction has reached the stage where the aircraft can be recognized and the owner fulfills the requirements of Article 7.

Article 18. If an aircraft is entered temporarily in the special part of the aircraft register in accordance with Articles 16 or 17, the provisions of Articles 12 to 15 shall apply accordingly. If such aircraft is permanently registered, it shall be stricken from the special part and entered in a new list of the register.

NATIONALITY OF AIRCRAFT

Article 19. An aircraft registered in accordance with Article 11 shall have Icelandic nationality.

The registration authority shall issue a nationality and registration certificate for the aircraft.

Article 20. If an aircraft is stricken from the register, or a notation has been made in the register in accordance with Article 14, the owner of such aircraft, or the former owner, if the aircraft is transferred to foreign ownership, must return the nationality and registration certificate to the registration authority without delay. If there are any entries in the register referring to changes in facts referred to in the certificate, the owner must return the certificate to the registration authority without delay which shall include the changes in the certificate or issue a new certificate.

Article 21. If an aircraft is temporarily registered according to Articles 16 and 17, the registration authority shall issue temporary nationality and registration certificates for such aircraft in accordance with the regulations issued by the Minister of Aviation.

The aircraft shall have Icelandic nationality until the registration is in force.

Article 22. Icelandic aircraft used for flights in accordance with this law shall have Icelandic nationality and registration certificates in conformity with the regulations in force. For flights within Icelandic territory, foreign aircraft must have foreign nationality and registration certificates or comparable documents granted by the for-