

ARTICLE 40.

(1) Any High Contracting Party may, at the time of signature or of deposit of ratification or of accession, declare that the acceptance which he gives to the present Convention does not apply to all or any of his colonies, protectorates, territories under mandate, or any other territory subject to his sovereignty or his authority, or any territory under his suzerainty.

(2) Accordingly any High Contracting Party may subsequently accede separately in the name of all or any of his colonies, protectorates, territories under mandate or any other territory subject to his sovereignty or to his authority or any territory under his suzerainty which have been thus excluded by his original declaration.

(3) Any High Contracting Party may denounce the present Convention, in accordance with its provisions, separately or for all or any of his colonies, protectorates, territories under mandate or any other territory subject to his sovereignty or to his authority, or any other territory under his suzerainty.

ARTICLE 41.

Any High Contracting Party shall be entitled not earlier than two years after the coming into force of the present Convention to call for the assembling of a new international Conference in order to consider any improvements which might be made in the present Convention. To this end he will communicate with the Government of the French Republic which will take the necessary measures to make preparations for such Conference.

The present Convention, done at Warsaw on the 12th October, 1929, shall remain open for signature until the 31st January, 1930.
