

(iv) if he does not pay or if, having paid contributions under the scheme in accordance with the provisions of this subparagraph, he ceases to pay contributions as aforesaid, he shall, for the purposes of the scheme, be deemed to have resigned from such employment—

(I) in case he ceases to pay contributions as aforesaid, on the date of the last payment, and

(II) in any other case, immediately before the commencement of the secondment period.

(3) If a person who is or was an officer or servant of the Company becomes entitled to a pension under the Ministerial and Parliamentary Offices Acts, 1938 to 1952—

(a) he shall not be entitled to reckon the whole or any part of his period of pensionable service, within the meaning of those Acts, for any superannuation benefits payable under a scheme made by the Company for the payment of superannuation benefits to or in respect of the officers or servants of the Company,

(b) if he has paid any contributions in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph in respect of that period, so much thereof as is equal to the amount of the contributions which he would have paid in respect of that period under the scheme if he had remained without secondment under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph in the service of the Company during that period and had been in receipt of remuneration from the Company during that period, shall be returned to him if and when a payment of benefit or a return of other contributions is made to him under the scheme.

(4) A reference in subparagraph (2) or subparagraph (3) of this paragraph to the receipt by any person of remuneration from the Company shall be taken as a reference to the receipt by that person of remuneration from the Company at the rate at which he was being remunerated by the Company on the last day of his employment with the Company before his secondment under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.
