

(ii) goods or passengers' baggage may be removed from the aircraft under the supervision of a constable, but if the aircraft has come from a place outside Jamaica, shall not be removed from the vicinity of the aircraft except on clearance by or with the consent of an officer of Customs and Excise;

(iii) if an aircraft is wrecked on the water, the aircraft or any contents thereof may be removed to such extent as may be necessary for bringing it or them to a place of safety.

(2) In this regulation the expression "authorized person" means any person authorized by the Inspector of Accidents either generally or specially to have access to any aircraft involved in an accident and includes any constable or any officer of Customs and Excise.

Inspector's Investigation

6. (1) For the purposes of carrying out investigations into the causes and circumstances of accidents to which these Regulations apply, the Governor shall appoint, generally or in any special case, a fit person to be an Inspector of Accidents.

(2) The Governor may cause an investigation to be carried out by an Inspector of Accidents of any accident to which these Regulations apply, whether or not such accident is one whereof notification is required to be given under regulation 4 of these Regulations.

(3) Public notice that such investigation is taking place shall be given in such manner as the Governor may think fit and shall state that any person who may desire to make representations concerning the circumstances or causes of the accident may do so in writing within a time to be specified in the notice.

7. With respect to any investigation by an Inspector of Accidents, the provisions of the subjoined paragraphs shall have effect—

(1) The Inspector of Accidents by whom the Investigation is made (in this regulation referred to as "the Inspector") shall have power—

(a) by summons under his hand to call before him and examine all such persons as he thinks fit, to require such persons to answer any questions or furnish any information or produce any books, papers, documents, and articles which the Inspector may consider relevant, and to retain any such books, papers, documents and articles until the completion of the investigation;

(b) to take statements from all such persons as he thinks fit and to require any such person to make and sign a declaration of the truth of the statement made by him;
