CHAPTER I—GENERAL PROVISIONS

(Purpose)

Article 1. The purpose of this Law is to promote the development of civil aviation by providing for methods of insuring the safety of navigation of aircraft in conformity with the provisions of the Convention on International Civil Aviation and with the standards, practices and procedures as annexed thereto, and by establishing an order of enterprises operating aircraft.

(Definitions)

Article 2. In this Law, "aircraft" shall mean any airplane, rotorcraft, glider and airship which can be used for air navigation with a person on board and any contrivance usable for air navigation which may be designated by cabinet order.

2. In this Law, "air service" shall mean any operation performed on board (including handling of radio equipment on board and excepting training as aircraft pilot) an aircraft, and certification as provided for by Article 19, to be performed on repaired or remodelled aircraft.
