

of the Lands and Arbitrations Clauses Act [Chapter 14] of Southern Rhodesia;

(b) in the case of materials taken and damage caused to property in Northern Rhodesia or Nyasaland, in terms of the law relating to arbitration in force in Northern Rhodesia or Nyasaland, as the case may be, and for that purpose the parties shall be deemed to be parties to a submission in which the reference is to two arbitrators.

8. (1) Any person duly authorized in terms of section seven may, in the discharge of his duties under such section, and subject to the provisions of article 33 of the Constitution, place his vehicles, erect tents, huts, or temporary buildings on any site convenient to him, and graze for such period as may be necessary on all adjoining natural and unenclosed pasture lands such animals as are used by him in the exercise of his duties, subject to the conditions set out in sub-section (2).

Power to erect tents and graze animals.

(2) (a) Before exercising the rights conferred under this section, such person shall give reasonable notice to the owner or occupier of such land, but if the whereabouts of such owner or occupier are unknown, the publication of a notice in three consecutive issues of the Federal Gazette and in three consecutive editions of a newspaper circulating in the district where such land is situated stating the action proposed to be taken shall be deemed to be a sufficient notice to such owner or occupier for the purposes of this paragraph.

(b) No tents, huts, or other temporary buildings shall be erected within five hundred yards of any dwelling house.

(c) If the owner or occupier of such land to whom notice has been given in terms of paragraph (a) objects to any site chosen for the erection of tents, huts, or other temporary buildings, the matter shall be referred to a magistrate of the district, who may make such order thereon as he may deem just and reasonable.

9. (1) The Minister shall have power to construct such drains as may be necessary for the purpose of leading storm water, which would otherwise naturally gather or impinge on an aerodrome, to its nearest natural drainage.

Power to construct drains.

(2) If as a result of the construction of any such drain such storm water causes damage to any property, the Minister shall pay reasonable compensation to any person aggrieved. In the event of any dispute as to the cause of such damage or the amount of compensation, the matter shall be referred to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of subsection (4) of section seven.

10. The owner or occupier of any land adjoining any aerodrome shall not cause or permit storm water to discharge from drains, or contour ridges constructed on such land, on to such aerodrome.

Discharge of storm water on to aerodrome prohibited.
