

board shall have power to sign such documents as may be necessary for the purpose of the enquiry in the same manner as the magistrate or the clerk of the court has power to do under the rules of the magistrate's or subordinate court. Any process to be served for purposes of such an enquiry shall be served by the messenger of such court of the district in which the person upon whom service is made resides.

(2) Nothing in this section contained shall be construed as affecting the powers or duties conferred upon coroners, magistrates, or justices of the peace by the provisions of any Territorial law relating to inquests, but where an accident involving loss of life is enquired into under this section by a coroner or magistrate, or by a board of which a coroner or magistrate is a member, the enquiry held under this Act may be a joint enquiry of the board and inquest of the coroner or magistrate.

14. (1) No mails shall be carried by any aircraft without the consent in writing of the Postmaster-General, and all provisions contained in any Federal or Territorial law or in any regulations made thereunder with regard to the dispatching, conveying, and delivering of mails and all incidental services relating thereto shall, with such modifications, adaptations and such consequential and supplementary provisions as may by the Minister be declared by notice in the Federal Gazette to be expedient and necessary, apply to the displacing, conveying, and delivering of mails by aircraft.

(2) No radio-telegraphic or other system of telegraphic or telephonic communication shall be installed, maintained, or operated in any aircraft or at any aerodrome or landing ground except by the Postmaster-General, or under and in accordance with licences or other authorizations in respect of either or both personnel and apparatus granted or recognized by the Postmaster-General.

(3) For the purposes of this section "Postmaster-General" means the Postmaster-General of the Federal department of posts and telegraphs, or, until such department has been established, the Postmaster-General of the Territory involved under the respective provisions of this section.

15. (1) Where it is alleged by any person interested that a foreign aircraft, which is not an aircraft to which section sixteen applies, and which is making a passage through or over the Federation, infringes in itself or in any part of it any invention, design, or model which is entitled to protection in the Federation, the High Court may, pending action to be brought, order the detention of such aircraft until the owner thereof deposits or secures in respect of the alleged infringement a sum, in this section called the deposited sum, and upon such order being complied with the aircraft shall not, during the continu-
