

(2) The Minister may attach such conditions to any licence as he may think fit having regard to the nature and circumstances of the application therefor.

(3) It shall be a condition of every licence that—

(a) the holder of the licence and any person having a financial interest in the business of the holder of the licence shall refrain from stipulating that any other person shall—

(i) refuse booking facilities to any other holder of a licence;

(ii) shall grant such facilities to such other holder only on onerous terms; and

(b) the holder of the licence shall perform all such reasonable services as the Minister may from time to time require in regard to the conveyance of mails (and of any persons who may be in charge thereof) upon journeys made under the licence. The remuneration for any such services shall be such as may be from time to time determined by agreement between the Minister and the holder of the licence:

Provided that any dispute, difference or question which may arise as to the remuneration to be paid to the licence-holder in respect of such services or as to the rights, duties or liabilities of the licence-holder or the Minister hereunder or otherwise in relation to any of the matters aforesaid shall in default of agreement be referred to arbitration in pursuance of the provisions of the Arbitration Ordinance.

6. Applications for licences shall be made in the form and manner and shall contain the particulars prescribed in the First Schedule hereto. Every applicant shall furnish to the Minister such further information as the Minister may reasonably require.

7. The Minister shall cause to be published in the Gazette such particulars of any applications for licences received by him as he may consider necessary and shall specify a date, not less than fourteen days after the publication of the notice, by which any representations or objections from any person with a genuine interest in the application can be made to the Minister as prescribed under regulation 8.

8. (1) Every representation or objection with regard to the application for a licence shall be in writing and must be signed by the objector, or, if the representation or objection is made by any corporate body, it shall be signed by any person who is authorised in that behalf by such body.

(2) Every representation or objection shall state the specific grounds on which it is based and shall specify any conditions which it may be desired to attach to the licence if granted.

(3) A copy of every such representation or objection shall be sent by the person making the same to the appli-
