

(3) Any person who fires a rocket without lawful authority or contrary to a condition of any authority shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding four thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Application
for authority
to fire
rockets.

4. Any person wishing to apply to the Director for an authority to fire a rocket shall make application in such manner and within such time as may be prescribed.

Grant of authorities
by Director.

5. Upon receipt of any application made under section 4, the Director may, in his discretion, grant authority to fire a rocket and may attach to the authority such conditions as he shall think fit.

Cancellation
of suspension
of authorities.

6. The Director may, in his discretion and upon such terms as he shall think fit, cancel or suspend any authority issued under section 5, and such cancellation or suspension shall have effect immediately the holder of the authority is notified thereof or at such later time as the Director may stipulate.

Delegation
of powers of Director.

7. The Director may, subject to such limitation as he may think fit, authorize any officer of the Directorate of Civil Aviation to exercise any of the powers conferred by this Act upon the Director.

Regulations.

8. (1) The High Commission may make Regulations generally for giving effect to the provisions of this Act and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing may make Regulations with respect to the procedure to be followed in regard to applications for authority to fire a rocket.

(2) Regulations made under this section shall be laid before the Assembly at the next meeting after the publication of such Regulations; and if the Assembly within a period of ten days after such Regulations are so laid, resolves that such Regulations shall be annulled, such Regulations shall cease to have effect as from the date of such resolution but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder or to the making of new Regulations.
